Improvment Groups Fight Quarter-Acre Lot Limitation Plan

Scout Drive Lagging, Is Extended

Frankly disappointed by results to date, leaders of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scouts and the Meridian District Boy Scouts have extended the Joint Fund Drive of the two organizations for $39,000 until next Thursday.

"In a good share of the territory, time has not permitted complete solicitation," George H. Macey, campaign chairman, said. "Therefore, since there are so many individuals still to be contacted, we are extending the campaign deadline to Thursday."

The drive had been scheduled to wind up last Monday.

MORE THAN 800 volunteer workers are making house calls throughout the residential areas. At the start of the drive two weeks ago, they were given a list of some 18,000 persons to see. The money raised will be divided equally between the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts.

Last year, about 6000 contributors gave $23,000 to the Joint Fund Drive.

There were some bright spots in the current picture, however.

BUSINESS DIVISION solicitation was being wound up this week, according to George H. Conner, chairman.

"The job has been finished in Danville, with good results under Horace Van Gordon," he said. "In Lafayette, the business workers have nearly all turned in their reports to Ken Jensen, chairman, and in Orinda, Rawlings Simon reports that there are only a few contacts to be completed there.

"C. D. McColm, solicitor in the Pleasant Hill area, completed his contacts several days ago. This leaves the Walnut Creek division to be complete, in order to make a complete report of business contributions.

"CLINTON NEWELL, business chairman in Walnut Creek, reported that a few more days will be necessary because in many cases no solicitations were made until after the Walnut Festival. He stated that this week should see most of this cleaned up, however."

In the Walnut Creek residential area, Mrs. George Madden reported the raising of over $4000.

A meeting of the Joint Drive Committee was scheduled to be held at the Lafayette home of J. Morris Browning of the Coordinating Committee last night, as this issue of The Sun was going to press.

School Board Approves Moraga Del Rey Drawing

Jack Buchter's preliminary drawig of Moraga Del Rey School was approved by the Orinda School Board during its meeting Monday night at Orinda School.

The drawing will now be sent to the State Department of School House Planning in Sacramento for approval.

It the state office approves, bids will be let, Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of schools, said.

THE MORAGA DEL REY school site is located on the south side of El Camino Moraga, opposite the head of Don Gabriel Way, and was purchased for $30,625.

Buchter was selected from 12 architects who had submitted applications to the school board for the work.

The board also again decided to apply for state aid in its building program. Forms are now being made out by the board as a preliminary step to a formal application.

PUMPING PLANT installation at the Sleepy Hollow School has been held up because of priority troubles.

"This may delay work at Sleepy Hollow School for at least two weeks," Sheaff reported.

An enrollment of 1457 in the Orinda School District was officially announced to the board. This figure consists of 620 youngsters at Glorietta School and 837 at Orinda School.

A LETTER from The Sun asking for the school board's agenda was read and Sheaff was instructed to work out arrangements with the paper.

"It is not always possible to have a complete agenda a week or more ahead of the meeting," Sheaff said, "but some of the more important issues are usually known that far in advance."

Planners Give OK On Land Permits

The County Planning Commission recommended approval of five land use aplications of Orinda residents Tuesday night.

The five were by Del Kay, W. B. Dunshee, C. E. Phillips, O. R. Sloan and Frde Brown.

C. F. Baumann canceled his request for 10-foot side yards on Lot 31 at Tara Brook, which is on the north side of Overhill Road.

Residents Vote to Postpone LID 27 Work Until Spring

Sewer work in Local Improvement District 27, in the Overhill Road area, was postponed until spring, following a poll of residents during the October 2 meeting of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board.

Residents were told by Board President Elliott Johnson that they had one of three choices. They could have the board accept the two bids which had been opened September 22 and which were above the estimate of Gerry Horstkotte Jr., engineer of the district; they could tell the board to advertise for new bids now, or they could wait until after the rainy season and start afresh.

THE BOARD warned the residents that if the two bids now in were refused and if new bids were now advertised for, by the time work would be able to get under way the rainy season would start.

A majority vote of the nearly 20 present called for holding off any further activity until spring. Following the opening of bids September 22, the board wrote persons who owned parcels of land in the area and asked them to attend the meeting.

FRANK HART of 100 Overhill Road asked Horstkotte how he had arrived at his estimated figure.

"The figure is based on time, material and a proper consideration for the contractor," Horstkotte answered.

Horstkotte had estimated $10,030 for the work. Bidders' total figures came to $13,685.50 (Kevry Construction Company of San Leandro) and $23,330.50 (James W. Hill of 2198 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek).

L.I.D. 27 will be located along Overhill Road from Anne Avenue on the east to Moraga Estates on the west. It will extend north from Overhill for a distance of one lot, and south from Overhill in varied lot depths.

Also included in the district will be five lots of the Broadview Tract, which is east on Martha Road.

THREE ITEMS are specified for the project — 2195 lineal feet of six-inch-diameter vitrified clay pipe sewer; four 48-inch inside-diameter manholes, and two rodding inlets, including cast iron frame and cover.

As he left, Hart thanked the board for their help and cooperation and said the people in his district "appreciate the board's understanding and work on the matter."

G. O. P. Members Active in Ike's Appearance Here

Republicans from Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek played an active part in Dwight Eisenhower's Bay Area appearance Wednesday.

Both, Joseph Creighton of Orinda, acting chairman of the Eisenhower-Nixon campaign in this area, and Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek, head of the Alameda County campaign, saw to it that Eisenhower make an unscheduled whistle stop in Martinez.

Senator William Knowland told Creighton Monday that if a large enough crowd was present, "Ike" would make a Martinez appearance.

Creighton swiftly contacted Mrs. Howard, president of the Walnut Creek Republican Women's Club, Mrs. E. C. Scofield of the Lafayette Republican Women's Club and Mrs. H. C. Gathings and Mrs. T. N. Barrows of the Orinda Republican Women's Club. These women in turn notified their members and other interested parties, and when Eisenhower stopped at Martinez, over 800 folks from this area were present.

Creighton and Austin Whitaker, preseident of the Young Republicans of Contra Costa County, were in charge of posters and banners.

Y. L. Yager of Orinda, helped with the plans for Eisenhower's stop in Crockett, and George Neill of Orinda helped make arrangements for Ike's Cow Palace talk in San Francisco.

A bus was to have picked up Orinda residents and take them to San Francisco to hear the general. However, the bus was late and when it finally arrived, was half-full with Lafayette people.

Many persons from Orinda were forced, at the last minute, to get rides elsewhere, but "all got to the Cow Palace in time,"

Early Friday morning, a cold of 44 degrees, the coldest point of the week, was recorded.

The week was rounded out Tuesday when .01 inches of rain fell.

County Agrees on Crossroad Lights

At the request of the State Division of Highways, Contra Costa County will assume maintenance costs for five traffic lights to be erected at the future Orinda Crossroads freeway interchange.

The supervisors last week authorized County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer to notify the State Highways Division that the county was willing to assume this responsibility.

Board action followed receipt of a letter from the State Highways Division.

The lights which the county will maintain will be four lights for a pedestrian underwalk and one for off-and-on lighting at Golden Gate Road and Moraga Highway.

Rick's Withdraws Application for Liquor License

Notice was sent to the State Board of Equalization in Sacramento Wednesday that the application for an on-sale general liquor license for Rick's Drive-In was being withdrawn.

In a letter to the board, Attorneys George R. Gordon and Richard Johnston, representing the applicants, stated:

"Please be advised that Arthur R. Bliesner Jr., Helen Groves and C. J. Garibotti hereby withdraw their application to transfer an on-sale general license to the premises known as 3223 and 3223-A Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, California, commonly known as Rick's Drive-In.

"This withdrawal is conditioned upon the return of the application fee heretofore deposited with the State Board of Equalization in the amount of $325, less the processing costs. Will you kindly confirm this.

"If there are any additional documents you may want executed, will you kindly advise."

(Announcement that the applicants were withdrawing their application was exclusively reported in The SUN last week.)

THE LETTER, dated Wednesday, was addressed to the attention of E. J. Clark, state liquor administrator.

At a Board of Equalization meeting in Sacramento three weeks ago, Clark recommended denial of the application, and James H. Quinn, District 2 board member, moved for denial. This was unanimously agreed to by the board, which then set October 30 for a hearing before the board.

This hearing was required by the Administrative Code of Procedure because the board action was contrary to the recommendation of the hearing officer who conducted a hearing on the matter in August, in Martinez.

The application withdrawal, when okayed by the state board, will do away with the need for the October hearing.

Attorney John A. Bohn, who represents the objectors, was in the Far East on a business trip this week, and was expected back around October 20. Mrs. Fred H. Knobel of Lafayette, a leader in the protest movement, expressed gratification at the latest development.

"OF COURSE," she warned, "the withdrawal doesn't become official until the State Board of Equalization acts on it and returns the deposit fee to the applicants. Until that happens, we don't want to be caught off guard, and all interested persons are asked to be in readiness to attend the meeting we planned for October 26, 3 p. m.,, at Acalanes. As soon as the withdrawal is officially allowed by the board, the whole thing will be over and all parties will be notified."

Cardinet Hurls Reply to Groups In Lot-Size Row

George H. Cardinet Jr. of Concord, general chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Lot Size and Zoning Methods, Sewage Disposal, Water Pollution, Flood Control and Drainage, took sharp issue this week with criticism by improvement associations of the quarter-acre lot limitation proposed by his subcommittee on lot and homesite sizes.

He told the Board of Supervisors Tuesday that a daily newspaper report of the objectors' activities "purported to substitute government by intimidation instead of by reason, counsel and justice."

Cardinet continued:

"THE VERY GROUP that induced representatives of 10 improvement clubs to a protest meeting on the above committee's report on lot sizes, mutually agreed to the formation of this committee, its personnel, and also had its own representatives placed thereon.

"One of those representatives, Mr. Deardorff, was reported as saying that the report was not unanimous. The minutes will show that this report was adopted unanimously, although Mr. Deardorff chose to absent himself from said meeting. If he had attended, or signified his dissent by mail, such dissent would have been so noted.

"IT IS INDEED a travesty on fair play and propriety that this recalcitrant, small group of willful men should not have attended the final determinations of the General Committee, but should rather choose to impugn the motives of the men whose appointment to the committee they agreed upon. It is unpardonable that they should attempt this flagrant intimidation of the Board of Supervisors and the Planning Commission before either one of those bodies has had an opportunity to consider the report.

"Our committee is writing an explanatory letter to each of the representatives of improvement clubs purported to have attended said indignation meeting, and offering to meet with them at their convenience and to discuss and counsel with them as to the background and factors that impelled our committee to make the above mentioned recommendation,"

Citizens' Committee Formed; Cummings Promises No Hasty Action on Proposal

Improvement groups throughout this area were alarmed this week by the proposal to limit maximum lot sizes for residential purposes to quarter-acre, and an organization tentatively called the Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning was speeding into action.

This group held a formative meeting last Sunday night at the home of William A. Bailey Jr. of 11 Alderwood Lane in the Walden area of Walnut Creek. Another meeting has been set for 8 p. m. this Sunday at Lafayette Town Hall, for the purpose of electing a permanent chairman and organizing study groups to determine which parts of the lot-size proposal are acceptable and which parts are unsatisfactory and to decide on alternatives to the unsatisfactory portions. Bailey was named temporary chairman last Sunday night.

Earlier last Sunday, meeting at President Harold Furst's home on Moraga Boulevard, the Lafayette Improvement Association board went on record asking that no hasty action be taken on this measure.

SCHEDULED for 2 p. m. next Wednesday in Martinez is a conference — not a public hearing — of the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission and a citizens' group headed by George Cardinet Jr. of Concord, which was named several months ago by the supervisors to study lot sizes and zoning methods, sewage dipoal, water pollution, flood control and drainage.

This committee's subcommittee on lot sizes recently submitted its report to the supervisors, recommending quarter-acre maximum, and it is this report which has started all the fireworks.

At the Lafayette meeting last Sunday afternoon, Furst reported he had talked on the phone that day with Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings, supervisor from this district, and that Cummings had assured him that no action would be taken prior to the improvement club's November 12 meeting on zoning and planning, and that if an extraordinary situation develops before then he will notify Furst.

A few representatives of other groups, including Bailey, were present at Furst's home. Groups represented included those from Walden, Walnut Boulevard, Clayton and San Ramon.

DISCUSSION was "hot." At one point S. H. McAllister declared: "This would wreck years of planning. It would set a maximum so low that all our work to establish minimums would be nullified. All our efforts would be wiped out. We don't like it and we're going to do something about it."

McAllister and W. H. Somerton will represent the Lafayette Improvement Association at this Sunday night's meeting.

Those present at the gathering at the Bailey home were, in addition to Bailey, Walter C. Rider of the Ayres Community Club in Clayton Valley, Edward M. Rowland, president of the Reliez Valley Improvement Association, Lafayette; Louis R. Pitto of the Walden Improvement Association, Donn Sigerson of the Orinda Association's planning committee, Philip Bancroft Jr., president of the Contra Costa Farm Bureau; Carl R. Meurk of the Moraga-Glorietta Improvement Association, Orinda; G. E. Brown of the San Ramon Valley Improvement Association, Harvey E. Hook, a farmer near Danville; Gerald S. Deardorff, a member of the subcommittee which recommended the quarter-acre lot sizes, who is president of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association and is also a member of the Farm Bureau; Albert Wahl, president of the Echo Springs Road Association; Don M. Sullivan of the Indian Valley Improvement Association, F. W. Eitzel of the Indian Valley Improvement Association and Attorney Gordon Turner of Martinez, an Ygnacio Valley resident.

Invited to this Sunday night's meeting are representatives from all interested improvement groups and other organizations.

AT THE BAILEY residence the discussion was just as strong as at the Lafayette Improvement Asociation board meeting.

"Every group in the county should go on record demanding a public hearing," declared Turner. He said the supervisors "have made up their minds." He added that Cummings is in the electrical contracting business and said Cummings "doe work for subdivisions."

At this point, someone asked, "How about recalling Cummings?" but in subsequent discussion it was agreed the group should now concentrate on defeating the quarter-acre limitation. There was some talk about advisability of hiring a full-time man to make a complete "case-history" study of all members of the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission and the committee headed by Cardinet, but, ac-

Entire Lafayette Family Falls Victim to Polio

An entire Lafayette family has been reported with polio, Dr. H. L. Blum, county health director, stated this week.

On Tuesday, a 34-year-old woman was stricken with the disease. She was the wife and mother of two victims reported in Lafayette last week.

"THE ENTIRE family getting the disease may just be a horrible coincidence," Dr. Blum said.

The only other polio victim in the county during the past week was a youngster in Pittsburg.

As of last week, nine persons in the Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek area had been reported with polio.

"All are coming along as can be expected," it was reported.

THERE HAVE now been 51 polio cases in Contra Costa County since January of this year.

Dr. Blum has offered these protective measures: Don't take children in crowds; avoid fatigue and chills; put sick persons to bed and contact a doctor, and follow your doctor's advice on nose and throat operations and inoculations.

Important New Weapons in Battle Against TB Cited by Mrs. Vurek

"Increasing resources for help to the tuberculosis patient, not only in the medical field, but also in the related fields of social service and rehabilitation, have been started," Mrs. George Vurek, Orinda president of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, points out.

Doctors, social workers, psychiatrists, pathologists, bacteriologists, nurses and rehabilitation workers are all needed to help the patient.

"The cooperation of all hands is especially important in the case of the chronic tuberculous for whom cure and rehabilitation are so difficult," Mrs. Vurek said.

Mrs. Vurek recently attended the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association in Boston, and gathered a good deal of information for the Contra Costa Public Health Association. Her observations are contained in her report to the local group.

The national gathering as attended by some 2200 people, all with a single purpose—control of tuberculosis.

In Denver, Mrs. Vurek reported, a survey conducted pointed the way for the three hospitals studied, to use the attitudes of the patients to improve their conditions. This type of study is much the same as one conducted by the Weimar Council at the Sanatorium.

The Christmas Seal Sale itself is the most important single educational feature of the whole tuberculosis movement, Mrs. Vurek commented.

"Many services have been started by the tuberculosis associations that would not have been started by tax-supporting agencies unless demonstrations were made," she said.

In elaborating on this, Mrs. Vudek stated: "Clinics, x-rays ,technicians, nurses and rehabilitation have all been started. Physicians from all parts of the United States have been organized for the purpose of educating the public and bringing necessary pressure on legislature to implement the far-reaching program now in existence."

During the Boston meeting, Dr. Russell E. Teague of Harrisburg, Pa., reported on the gradual shift in age and sex distribution of the tuberculosis patient to show a grogressive shifting toward men of middle and older ages.

"A definite need for more nurses was shown during the nursing session at the meeting," Mrs. Vurek concluded. "Many nurses have a great fear of working with tuberculosis patients. New skills must be knowledge and they must be able to tarin auziliary workers and other professional people to aid the patients, both mentally and physically."

The National Tuberculosis Association meeting was held last May.

Area Eyes Wednesday Public Hearing On Streamlining of Planning Board

Central Contra Costans are eyeing next Wednesday's public hearing on reorganization of the County Planning Commission, hoping that from it will emerge solution of a long-standing problem for this area.

That problem is the urgent need for long-range planning, so that such matters as back-road connections, road planning in general and drainage and zoning details will not, as has been the case, keep plaguing property owners and residents with the recurring necessity for a battle on every issue.

THE HEARING, to be held before the Planning Commission in Room 210 of the Hall of Records in Martinez at 3:30 p. m., will be the third public hearing on the matter.

As outlined by Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker, the reorganization proposal calls for a revolving three-member committee to handle land use applications involving modifications in zoning regulations, including requests for setback and side yard changes. Under the plan, such applications would not have to be acted on by the Board of Supervisors, as at present, but dissatisfied applicants could appeal to the full Planning Commission .

THIS, IT IS ARGUED, would leave the Planning Commissian free to devote more time to long-range planning. Lack of such time has been the basis of many complaints from this area.

Rezonings, zonings, subdivision charting and master planning are some of the activities which the Planning Commission would be able to concentrate on, it is believed, while the land use committee would take care of the numerous other matters which, while important, are minor in comparison.

Improvers Fight Lot Proposal

cording to Bailey, Pitto suggested hiring a full-time man to report to the various improvement associations on actions of the supervisors and the county planners.

IT WAS BROUGHT OUT that about eight months ago the Farm Bureau recommended a half-acre minimum as a desired medium between agricultural and residential area standards but that a group headed by Cardinet was opposed to this. The advisory committee was later appointed by the supervisors.

"They were to appoint a committee to study half-acre limitation only," Turner said. "Somehow, it's been endowed with every power under the sun. Cardinet gets a subcommittee, and it's a beauty . . . I don't think it's representative of the people at all."

DEARDORFF pointed out he was on the subcommittee, but added he had asked to be put on it and that he was against the subcommittee report, so that it was not unanimous.

BANCROFT SAID the farmers do not object to quarter-acre lots in some subdivisions or in proper areas — but that they are against the limitation in agricultural areas.

"The county should not be developed at such a rate that our facilities cannot take care of the growth — and that's what the subdividers are sponsoring," Bailey stated.

It was mentioned that the Cardinet committee and the lot-size subcommittee were heavy with real estate men and contractors. The subcommittee consists of L. E. Mullen, president of the Contra Costa County Title Company; A. J. Johnson, realtor; H. S. Gelderman, realtor and president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board; J. H. Harriman, justice of the peace in eastern Contra Costa County, and Deardorff, a farmer.

Villager's Club to Hold Benefit Dance

November 14 is the date set for the Villager's Club's initial venture in a large fund raising project.

That Friday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. the Orinda Country Club will ring with the sounds of Henry Gallagher's orchestra and the dancing feet of all those who have bought their $2 per couple tickets for the function. The Villager's is a philanthropic organization and this dance is being held to raise money for a charity fund. All proceeds will go to such activities as assisting needy families at Christmas time.

This November dance is the club's major winter project for this year. It'll be up to the ticket sales to determine whether or not this will be a yearly function.

In previous years the Villager's have helped out needy families from proceeds obtained by selling dolls.

These Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Concord women also added to their funds with cake sales.

This year they would like to do more for people and organizations (such as the Recreation Center, Therapy Center and Red Cross) and have devised the means of a dance to obtain their goal.

Tickets are now available from any Villager's member and can also be obtained by calling Mrs. Bernice Gomes at Walnut Creek 3131, publicity chairman, or Mrs. Beverly Nelson, Walnut Creek 4351, ticket chairman.

Other dance chairmen are Mrs. Vivian Spaich, general, and Mrs. Angie Laven, posters.

Radio Hams Set To Participate in Emergency Test

Members of the Mount Diablo Amateur Radio Club will participate in a simulated emergency test, under the direction of Richard V. Wallace, W6TCU, Central Contra Costa emergency coordinator of the American Radio Relay League.

The test will be conducted in conjunction with the American Red Cross at an undesignated hour from noon tomorrow to midnight Sunday. During this alert period, amateur radio operators of Central Contra Costa County will join other "hams" all over the nation in handling message traffic under simulated emergency conditions.

Civil defense will be emphasized in this year's emergency communications test of initiating and accepting hypothetical messages in preparation for a possible disaster's damaging or incapacitating normal communications facilities.

During the test, mobile and portable short-range radio stations will be set by volunteer "hams" at strategic points around Walnut Creek, Concord, Danville, Lafayette and Orinda to provide local communications. Contact with distant points will be supplide by a high-powered long-range station.

A control station located near Walnut Creek City Hall will direct operations, with an alternate control at an undisclosed location.

This network of stations, funneled first through the Mount Diablo Red Cross Chapter, will eventually tie in with a national network of amateur stations and the National American Red Cross.

Data from operations reports of emergency equipment will be compiled by Jack Tait, W6IT, chairman of communications for the Mount Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross. Edmund S. Barnett, president of the local Red Cross chapter will relay data through Central Contra Costa County amateur radio channels to a Bay Area Red Cross station, and then progressively from county to state, to Red Cross Headquartres in Washington, D.C.

Local amateur radio operators who have signed for particination in the Simulated Emergency Test are: R. V. Wallace, W6TCU, Concord; O. W. Peterson, W6LGW, Alamo; John Hopkins, K6AQ, Lafayette; Al Meyers, W6LIL, Walnut Creek; Tom Revak, W6JYZ, Walnut Creek; Gerwin Henry, K6DX, Alamo; Harry Cameron, W6RVC, Walnut Creek; Lee Leidy, W6YHO, Walnut Creek; Jack Lewis, W6IHR, Concord; Gene Dotson, W6IPW, Concord.

Garbage Franchise Repealed – All Over But the Shouting

In a matter of seconds, directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District repealed the garbage franchise ordinance during their October 2 meeting.

Following a motion of William Malott's, the board voted 4-0 to repeal the ordinance. President Elliott Johnson did not vote.

There was no discussion, and the controversial franchise was repealed in near-record time.

A NEW ORDINANCE, Ordinance 21, was announced by Sanitary District Attorney John Nejedly. This merely states the repeal of the franchise ordinance. Adoption of this ordinance repealed the old one.

The board had delayed the rescinding action pending a Superior Court ruling on a temporary restraining order obtained earlier by Boyd Olney Jr.

Olney's attorney, David Dolgin, had moved for dismissal, and Judge Hugh H. Donovan, in dismissing the order, denied the temporary injunction originally asked for, thus in effect upholding the validity of the franchise ordinance.

A PROPOSED NEW ordinance which would establish a new schedule for connection fees throughout the district was discussed.

The plan had been proposed by Nejedly and Gerry Horstkotte Jr., Sanitary District engineer.

"We need some measure on what to base our fees," Horstkotte said. "In the past, as it can be in the future, our fees can be inconsistent."

No action on the matter was taken by the board, and the discussion was continued until its next meeting.

FRANK SALFINGERE, newly-elected director, was appointed by Johnson to serve on the auditing committee. Salfingere will serve with Malott and will take the place of H. W. Toland, former board member.

Horstkotte mentioned the need for a relief operator who would be able to work part time at both the sewage treatment plant and the pumping station.

Before the board decides on this position, Horstkotte was asked to present a document outlining the work and showing how badly a new employee is needed.

Next meeting has been set for Thursday, October 30, 8 p. m., at the district office at 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Hunters Ready For Duck Season

Art Evans of the Diablo Rod and Gun Club last week urged all local hunters to begin preparing for duck season which opens at noon October 24.

He predicted ducks will be plentiful this year and should act as a balm for the many unfortunate deer hunters.

Evans said deer hunters this season were about the most disgruntled residents in the area. "It was one of our poorest seasons," he said.

Among the more fortunate one, Evans cited Reino Alto, who bagged a four-pointer dressing out at 165 ponuds, near Westwood.

Other lucky hunters were Neil Miller, three - pointer and 135 pounds; and doctors, Ben Dykes, Frank Thomas and George Thomas, each getting three-pointers.

Evans himself returned recently from a month's fishing trip into Idaho and Wyoming, catching a good load of Rainbow and Eastern Brook trout.

He also claimed good luck on a recent pigeon hunt near Burney with Stan Estep.

Commuters Group To Hold Annual Meeting Tuesday

The Contra Costa County Commuters Association will hold its annual meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in room 208, Acalanes High School.

All county commuters, including ride pool groups and the entire membership, has been invited.

A FINANCIAL report of the past year's activities will be given by Fred Folliard, treasurer, together with other committee reports on publicity, service safety and membership.

Seven new directors will be nominated and elected to serve for the next two years.

OUTGOING directors are Arthur Bowman of Orinda, 1952 president; Aubrey Macomber of Walnut Creek, 1951 president, and Magnus Hansen, Norma Warner and Charles Anderson of Walnut Creek.

County Supervisor H. L. Cummings and R. W. Breuner of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission have been invited to attend and address the meeting.

Expected to come up for discussion are problems of service, overloading on buses, long waiting periods between schedules and the standee situation.

Jerry Smith Wins Kickoff Kontest

By picking 12 winners out of the 14 football games listed in last week's Kickoff Kontest sponsored by the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun, Jerry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sewall Smith of Sibert Court, Lafayette, won two reserved-seat tickets to the Stanford-Oregon game at Stanford later this season.

As first-placer, though, Jerry had plenty of competition. Close behind him was James Gilwee of Orinda, who correctly guessed 11 winners. Then came Dave Mittleholtz of Walnut Creek, with 10 correct picks.

James McDowell, Edward Burr and Mike Ballachey, all of Lafayette, each guessed nine winners.

Who'll be this week's Kickoff Kontest winner? He or she will get, free, a one-year subscription to the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun or the Orinda Sun.

Entries must be in The SUN office or postmarked before 11 a.m. this Saturday.

Care for Adventure, Excitement? If So, Follow the Phair Family

Adventure and excitement, that's the lot of the E. J. Phair family of 12 Via Farralon. Mr. and Mrs. Phair are owners of the Orinda Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Phair, along with their three youngsters, Tommy, Johnny and Ginny, head for the mountains of California and go on pack trips whenever possible.

THIS YEAR for example, the entire family went to the Mammoth Lake area. They slept on the ground and under the stars and "had a wonderful time."

In a few weeks, Mama and Papa Phair are planning a brief three-day trip high into the mountains near Yosemite.

All the Phair youngsters go to Orinda School, Tommy, 12, is "in on everything;" Johnny, 13, is quite an athlete, and Ginny, 7, has a cheerful personality and makes friends very easily.

AN INTERESTING sidelight on John and Tom is the fact that both had birthdays September 25. They were born on the same day exactly one year apart.

The Phairs have lived in Orinda since 1938 and have owned the Orinda Store, on Orinda Highway, for 12 years.

When Golden State Milk Company opened up in the Orinda-Lafayette area shortly after the Broadway Tunnel was built, Phair was the first driver in this territory.

THE PHAIR FAMILY have their own home. They have a swimming pool which they enjoy, and do a good deal of entertaining.

Beside his family, the light of Phair's life is his store, which can truly be called one of the most unusual food stores in the Bay Area.

If you're ever in search of unusual foods, and you can't find them anywhere else, it's dollars to doughnuts that you'll find 'em at the Orinda Store.

Phair was born in Sacramento, was reared in Piedmont and finally moved to Orinda. His wife, Virginia, was born in Alaska. She is a University of California graduate.

Malaria Strikes 9 Camp Fire Girls

One girl from Crockett and eight others from elsewhere in California who recently attended a Camp Fire Girls camp at Lake Vera in Nevada County have been reported with tereian malaria, according to Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer.

All cases have been traced to exposure to anothelene mosquitos at the summer camp and to a Korean Veteran with recurring malaria.

Private physicians have been alerted as to the possibility of future cases in the county.

Malaria is one of the diseases that can be prevented by adequate public health measures.

Sutton's Opens After Short Move

After moving across the street, Sutton's Shoe Shoppe, now located at 989 Moraga Road, is having its Grand Opening this weekend.

The store was formerly located on Golden Gate Way near Moraga Road.

All items purchased during the Grand Opening will be at a 10 per cent saving, Orvall Sutton, owner of the store, announced.

Frank Coelho will work on the sewing of shoes, while Wally Cochren will do the shoe repair work.

Store hours are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the week. The store will also stay open until 10 a.m. Friday nights.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

In view of the confusion in many minds regarding Proposition 3, I think it only fair to call attention to fact that Protestant churches with certain very minor exceptions are opposing the amendment.

They are doing this not from prejudice against any other religious group, but because they believe first and foremost in the public school system. I should appreciate it if you could print the following resolution passed unanimously by the Northern California Congregational Conference on May 24 of this year:

"Whereas we consider the legislative act exempting sectarian parochial schools from taxation ill-advised and contrary to the best interests of the taxpayers, the public schools, and against the often-expressed will of the electorate,

"Be it resolved that we favor repeal of this exemption and urge all our constitutent churches to inform their members as to the issues involved and use all reasonable and Christian means to oppose the proposed tax exemption."

Church Groups Set Fall Festival For October 29

A carnival atmosphere will pervade Fellowship Hall and the Sunday School rooms at Orinda Community Church on Wednesday, October 29, when a Fall Festival and Bazaar will be put on through the combined efforts of all Orinda Community Church groups, according to Mrs. U. B. Smith, Guild Ways and Means chairman.

A delicious dinner, prepared by Guild members under the direction of Mrs. D. M. Anderson, will be served from 5:30 to 7 in Fellowship Hall.

Dinner tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children of 12 years and under. Tickets are limited, and may be secured from Mrs. A. D. Henry, ticket chairman, Orinda 2852, or from individual Section Ways and Means chairmen.

DINNER DECORATIONS will be supervised by Mrs. N. G. Gray. Other committees designated so far include: Set-up—Mrs. Charles Blue, chairman; Serving — under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Mordy.

From 5 to 9:30 p. m., booths in the Children's Unit will be open for the sale of sewing articles —aprons, children's accessories and toys, and gift articles — which will be made and sold by Guild Section III; cooked foods prepared and sold by Section I; cards and gift wrappings sold by Section IV. There will also be a booth devoted to used books. Section II members will furnish general assistance where needed throughout the evening.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL rooms will be turned over to skill games for adults and children alike, planned by the Shipmates, and supervised by the Joe Creightons and Bob Browns. Clipper Club will provide a grab bag under the direction of the Emory Davises. Mr. E. T. Meakin of the Seafarers will show movies for the children.

Children's games are being planned and will be set up by members of Guild Section IV and operated by members of Pilgrim Fellowship under the direction of the Ed Turks.

There will be a prize which any one attending this festival has a chance to win. The prize will be a beautiful and valuable white camellia, donated by Mrs. H. J. Teachout.

'T.V. Meats' Now at Black's

Vaszo Giannini and A. Fereira have leased the meat department in Black's Market from Frank Black and are now operating it on their own.

Although they now recall the department "TV Meats," the same employees and the same top quality meats are on hand.

Accent on Youth At Church Service

A special emphasis on high school and college age young people will mark the program of the Orinda Community Church Sunday when the younger members and attendants of the church will attend the morning worship hour at 11 a.m., bringing their parents.

The sermon to be given by Rev. Fred R. Morrow is to be on the subject "The Appeal of Christ." A prize is offered for the best outline or resume submitted by a high school age person .The chapel choir will again be heard in sacred numbers under the direction of Margaret Popovich, with Daniel Popovich at the organ console.

At 6 p.m. Sunday evening, Pilgrim Fellowship members and their parents will participate in a potluck supper in the Fellowship Hall. In addition to opportunities for friendship among young people and parents, there will be a discussion led by the minister on the question, "Sermons, Super or Superflous?" This climaxes a series on the art of being a member of a congregation.

Planning this special meeting are Tania Hudd, P.F. president; C. R. Fowler, adviser, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Turk, counsellors. Judy Hall is leader of the chapel service which concludes the program.

The first service of the day will be held at 9:30, and combines adults with the senior members of the Sunday School. Following the half hour in the chapel, the adult group meets for discussion in the Livingstone room. It is designed especially for parents who want to be present during their children's school session. A second session of the school is given for children through the sixth grade during the 11 o'clock worship hour.

Thatcher in Lead Role Of 'Hay Fever' Play

In addition to his work as choir director at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and speech therapist in the Contra Costa schools, Sherwood Thatcher will play the leading role in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," which will be presented next Thursday and Friday at 8:15 p.m. at the Arlington Community Center in Kensington.

Cast as the author-husband of his real-life wife, Kitty, who plays the uninhibited retired actress, Judith Bliss, Thatcher, as David, becomes involved in a pandemonium of gay romance, the lines sparkling in true Noel Coward fashion.

Lieut. Neller Home from Korea

First Lieutenant Herbert F. Neller Jr. is back home in Lafayette after 18 months in Japan and Korea with the 40th Division.

Neller, who has lived here for the past 14 years, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Neller of Moraga Boulevard. He arrived back in the United States aboard the General W. M. Black, along with a large contingent of Korean veterans.

A GRADUATE OF Acalanes High School in 1942, Neller served during the European campaign in General George Patton's Third Army. He was in the Field Artillery and for action in battles, he was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service.

At the close of World War II Neller returned to Lafayette and entered the University of California in the spring of 1946. Here he majored in international relations and political science. Taking advanced study in R.O.T.C., Neller graduated with the highest honors of his class in this military training. As a reserve officer in the Army, he took a leave of absence from Cal and studied advanced officer training for three months at Fort Benning, Ga. Then, returning to college in Berkeley, he completed his studies in hte spring of 1950 and received an appointment to the State Department.

HE WAS BEING indoctrinated into the work of the State Department in Washington, D. C., when an appointment as an officer in the Regular Army came through and he accepted it. From Washington he was sent to Fort Ord, where he instructed new recruits in basic training. When the 40th Division was readied for Korean service, Neller volunteered for service with that group, to be part of its complement officers. During the past year and a half he has been in command of a company in Japan and at the battle-front in Korea.

Lieutenant Neller has been welcomed home by his many friends in Lafayette and especially his younger brother, Danny. After enjoying a 30-day leave at home he will report to Fort Riley, Kansas, where he will continue to serve his country—this time as an instructor in military tactics.

Plans Started For Lafayette's First 4-H Club

Plans are now under way for the organization of Lafayette's first 4-H Club.

Mrs. Will Hall of 1363 Reliez Valley Road and Mrs. F. C. Davidson of Boyer Circle will head the group. It has taken these women over a year to get permission to organize a 4-H Club in Lafayette.

"Now, the only other 4-H Club near Lafayette is located in Martinez," Mrs. Hall explained.

Interested youths, from 10 to 21 have been asked to contact Mrs. Hall.

The 4-H Club will be open to Lafayette youngsters, although anyone in the area may join.

When the club is organized, it will be broken into two groups, a large livestock group and a small animal group.

Youngsters 15 or older may enroll in a junior leadership group. They will be in charge of three or more younger members.

"The 4-H Club offers excellent training for its members," Mrs. Hall said.

Rotary Hears Talk by Poll

Ernest Poll of 448 Camino Sobrante, Orinda, spoke to members of the Lafayette Rotary Club yesterday at Planters Dock. His talk was titled, "The Story of a Displaced Person."

Bob Hamlin was program chairman.

Next week, Phil Gustafson will serve as program chairman. He is planning to present a movie of the East Bay Municipal Utility District entitled, "At the Turn of the Faucet."

Friendship Circle Number One Meets

Friendship Circle Number 1 of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Victor Peery of 1153 Glen Road at 8 p.m.

An interesting and entertaining program has been planned.

Golf Trip to Carmel

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay Underwood of Lower Happy Valley Road were in Carmel October 2 and 3, where they enjoyed playing golf.

Postmaster of Moraga, Hansen, Taken by Death

Following the death of Julius J. Hansen ,56, Moraga postmaster, October 1, private inurnment was held Saturday at the Sunset View Cemetery in Berkeley.

Mrs. Lily Wilkinson is now taking care of the Moraga mail. Names of persons wishing to become acting postmaster will be submitted to the Democratic Central Committee of Contra Costa County and will then be forwarded to Washington, D. C., for final approval by the postmaster general.

HANSEN, a native of Denmark, died in a Martinez hospital. Services were held last Saturday at the Little Chapel of the Flowers in Walnut Creek.

He had been hospitalized intermittently for illness since last June.

Hansen is survived by his wife, Jenny, and his son, Werner Hansen, now in the U. S. Navy.

PRIOR TO HIS appointment as postmaster, Hansen was a farm manager in Moraga Valley for nearly 10 years.

He was a member of Wahoo Tribe of Redmen in Concord and a former vice-president of the Contra Costa Postmasters' Association.

Roy Rogers on Screen Tomorrow

"King of the Cowboys," Roy Rogers, will rule again tomorrow afternoon at the children's approved matinee at the Park Theater when "Bells of Coronado" will be the featre attraction.

This cowboy picture is considered one of the best of the Roy Rogers series. It has an absorbing and up-to-date plot which gives interesting information on uranium, Geiger counters and the work of power linemen. The play offers a story filled with mystery and excitement, with not as much gun-shooting as usually accompanies films of this type.

Doors open as usual at 1:45, with the short features starting at 2 o'clock.

All Patrols of Troop 204 Set For Camporette

A busy program is under way for Lafayette Boy Scout Troop 204.

Tomorrow the troop members will join other scouts of the Meridian District in their annual Camporette. This gathering, under direction of Scout Executive John Youmans, will be held on the St. Mary's College campus.

ALL FOUR PATROLS of Troop 204 will participate, as will a large group of Senior Scouts who will give a demonstration of camping and outdoor cooking. The boys will be accompanied for their overnight stay at the Moraga campus by Scoutmaster Seth Blakeman and Committeemen Paul Wilson, W. A. Peterson and Lester Lloyd.

The Camporette will include the Meridian District's annual swim meet, which will be held at the St. Mary's pool tomorrow afternoon. A large team representing Troop 204 will participate.

GOP Women Busy At Precinct Work

Informative discussion groups are being held in Lafayette precincts under the auspices of the Lafayette Women's Republican Club. They are arranged by precinct captains and held either in their homes or in other homes in the area.

Mrs. R. C. Haring organized the first meeting at the home of the Munsen Everetts in Sunset Village, assinsted by Mrs. Lex Zaepffel, also of Sunset Village. Mrs. Karl Paulding conducted a discussion at the Happy Valley home of the E. A. Petersons. "Ike Nights" were held at the homes of the William Freemans and Mel Nielsens, at which both John Baldwin and Don Doyle spoke.

Last week a round-table discussion was held at the home of Mary and Bill Harris on Springhill Road. A panel of two Democrats and two Republicans was moderated by Richard Graves. A group of 30 neighbors was invited to ask questions and enter into the discussion. Attention was concentrated on campaign issues. Refreshments were served later on the patio.

Mrs. Raymond Tolles is conducting a workshop for literature mailing in her home, and other members of the group are staffing the Republican office in Lafayette.

Just think how much extra time—and money — you spend when you shop "out of town"!

Unknown Objects Seen in Night Sky

Outside visitors in this area may wonder at the number of people seen outside at night with their faces lighted skyward.

It is not an epidemic of cricks-in-the-neck. The local citizenry are watching for the mysterious red lights seen lately, gliding about the night sky.

First noticed about four weeks ago, the objects have been sighted several times since, usually starting about 8 p.m. Described as having a dull orange-red glow and of about the size the planet Venus appears to us, the objects silently and effortlessly slip with great speed across the darkened heavens. No sound of a plane will be in evidence, although some say that shortly after they have seen the "lights," they have noticed greater plane activity.

ONE PERSON claims to have seen an object traveling just in front of a jet plane and at exactly the same speed. If they appear in day time, none have been seen.

The glowing object does not appear to vary in size, nor in altitude, but some claim to have seen the red light hang motionless, like a 40-watt bulb, for several minutes, then dart off in a zig-zag course. It is said they usually appear first in the east and go directly west.

SEVERAL PEOPLE on Monday night, September 22, saw one of these strange visitors come from the north, perform a large circle and disappear again over the hills to the north.

Some say the light appears to flicker slightly, others claim the glow is steady. However there is only conjecture among those who have viewed the phenomena.

Are the viewers the first to see the workings of some new secret device—is it a new type of guided glider or lighter-than-air craft? It is agreed these objects are far too well behaved to be "flying saucers."

'Happy Though Human' Subject Of Church Sermon

The sermon at Lafayette Community Church at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday will be entitled "Happy Though Human."

The pastors, Bishop George A. Miller and Rev. Harry E. Shaner, say:

"With the world in turmoil, with charges and counter-charges of an election year, with the offices of psychiatrists over-crowded, with life seeming at wit's end, just what can one individual do to help gain a focus for life? How can we live a life of purpose and yet be happy individuals?

"These questions all strike to the very heart of suburban living. Yes, to the very heart of our lives."

Persons who wish to contribute rummage for the sale have been asked to contact Bayard Burnett of 707 Los Palos Drive. He is an adult adviser.

Pat Bermingham at Cousin's Wedding

Patricia Behlmingham of Lafayette served as an attendant at the wedding of Alexandra Brown and James Bermingham Stice which was held recently in Sacramento.

Pat, cousin of the groom, wore a ballerina length dress of tulle in a coral shade which had a full tiered skirt. She had a matching bolero and carried a bouquet of carnations. Sharon Lee Brown of Orinda was in charge of the guest book.

Rummage Sale On Next Week to Aid Sea Scouts

A rummage sale to raise funds for the "S.S. Seawolf," Lafayette's Sea Scout group, will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 16, 17 and 18, under the sponsorship of the Lafayette Lions Club.

The sale will be held in the empty store on Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Hodges Television Center and Wilson Plumbing and Supply store. It starts at 10 a.m. each day.

Mrs. S. DeAngelis will be in charge of the sale and may be contacted at Lafayette 4881. Ernie Hansbearry is chairman of the Lions committee connected with the sale, and H. T. Crandell is co-chairman.

Six trucks will be sent throughout Lafayette Sunday to gather any articles that persons wish to contribute to the sale.

"If people want to bring items to our sales headquarters," Hansbearry said, "there will be an attendant there after 12 all next week."

The Sea Scout group is sponsored by the Lions Club.

Scarborough Elected To Taxpayers' Board

Electon of W. B. Scarborough of 3344 Moraga Road to the Board of Directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association was announced this week.

Scarborough has long been active in civic affairs. He is a member of the Lafayette School Board, and for two years—1950-51 and 1951-52—was president of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

He is associated with the Standard Oil Company.

Canyon Holds Roadwork 'Party'

The resurfacing "party" held last Saturday in Canyon was attended by some 15 men and eight boys who reside along Redwood Highway.

This yearly event, sponsored by the Redwood Heights Road Association, brought out members clad in faded shirts and stained dungarees with matching accessories, such as wheelbarrows, shovels and rakes.

Among those present were Ed Aszklar, president of the association, who wore an unmatched outfit and Clyde Engle, secretary-treasurer, who was noticeable in matched tans. The appropriate attire and comfortable boots of Al Reiter were well saturated with oil before the day was over, due to his position as chief oiler.

Rented especially for this occasion were two dump trucks, driven by Fred Leuthold and John Shally. Scout-age boys had an enjoyable time shoveling black top from the trucks.

George Menges chauffeured his jeep which hauled the oiling equipment. First to arrive at the affair were several teen-agers who, clad in the usual T-shirts and jeans, came sweeping down the road pushing large street brooms. Refreshments of beer and lemonade were served.

Because of unfinished business, another gathering is scheduled for next Saturday. Many such "parties" have taken place since the road was first constructed in 1913.

Wedding Attendant

Mrs. Robert Jarvis of 1016 Circle Creek Drive served as an attendant at the recent wedding of Norma Faulkner and Burtram Alsterlind at Calvary Methodist Church in San Francisco.

Canyon Callings . . .

POLITICAL NOTE: Canyonites are very pleased to hear that John Baldwin, running for Congress, is planning on attending the potluck supper tomorrow night. He is the first candidate running in this election to take the trouble to meet those dwelling in this out-of-the-way community. (Jack Pedder a few elections ago contacted the residents personally.)

To dig up a little ancient history, Canyon is part of a precinct (Moraga-Redwood) which at one time carried more votes than any other in Contra Costa County. To clarify: The results of the general election of Nov. 13, 1849, were as follows: San Antonio (now Alameda County) 5 votes, Martinez 41 and Moraga-Redwood 61. The polling place was either in Canyon or over the hill in Brown's Valley.

AT THE PRIMARY election this year, 103 voted from the Canyon precinct out of 166 registered. Oh, yes, a famous politician spoke here some years ago—name of William Jennings Bryan.

Flown to the east coast by an Army plane, Captain E. O. Musser of Group 8, Civil Air Patrol, recently piloted from Newark, N. J., one of the Stinson L5 planes which had seen service in Germany during World War II. Assigned to the CAP by the government, these ambulance-type planes will be used by the CAP in its air search and rescue work. The ship was delivered to McClelland Field for overhauling.

During his trip Captain Musser was able to visit his sister in Long Island and his mother in Oklahoma.

GEORGE MASKER, principal of Canyon School, completed work at San Francisco State College this summer for his AB degree.

No need to notify the FBI—the "money plant" business in which Marcella and Rene Reiter have been engaged has nothing to do with counterfeiting—they only handle the floral type.

At a recent YWCA dinner Mrs. Stan Burpee renewed friendship with Mrs. Ernest Russel, who in past years was a frequent visitor at the then Lionel Biledeau home in Canyon. (The Biledeau home is one of the many which has been bought and torn down by EBMUD in this area.)

Since the new pump has been installed in "Musserville," residents of that canyon have an ample supply of water, the lucky people.

SCHOOL NEWS: The Noon League September play-off results: Timmy Crawford, horseshoe champ; Brad Day, champion checker player, and Judy Miller, winner of the jacks games. The results of the marble match are not in as yet.

The Canyon football team won over Moraga a week ago Thursday, 20-14. The scores of yesterday's boys' football and girls' volleyball games with Orinda Grammar School were not reported by press time.

The four children of Mrs. Evelyn Shelton, newly moved into the Thomas house, have brought up the school enrollment to 48.

MRS. JOHN THUNE, who with her children spent the summer at her parents' home in Yakima, Wash., on her return trip brought six extra passengers—the three-day old puppies of her honey-colored cocker.

Jack MacKenzie reports a very successful and profitable two-week hunting trip into the Trinity Alps. Beside a 3-point deer, Jac kdowned a brown bear (the skin of which is at present time being made into a rug), one coyote and two bobcats, the latter for which he collected a bounty.

Cat Chat: The Dennie Clouses' six-toed black cat is the proud mother of two six-toed black kittens who will remain on with the family as permanent guests.

NATURE NOTE: We hope the lone crow cawing and flapping over Canyon last Saturday was not the vanguard of a crow invasion; their number is greatly increasing in the Moraga area.

Canyon Kid Quip: The four year old excitedly told his mother that he had found out that "an old lady had put all those rocks in the creek bottom." Detecting brought out the fact that someone had told the inquisitive youngster that "Old Mother Nature was responsible for the rocks in the creek bed."

Don't forget to remember the Canyon Community Club sponsored potluck supper which will be held in Redwood Inn hall tomorrow night at 6:30. (Too cool to be held in the grove.) Movies! Entertainment!

Our Savior's To Observe 'Good Neighbor Sunday'

"Good Neighbor Sunday" will be observed at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette on Sunday at both the 8 and 11 a.m. services. Light refreshments will be served after both services, giving an opportunity for visiting and fellowship.

Pastor Luther Berven will speak on the sermon topic, "Are You a Good Neighbor?" A special invitation is extended by members of Our Savior's Church to all those who do not have a church home of their own to worship at Our Savior's this Sunday.

The a capela choir will sing an anthem, and Jo Anne Guldenzopf will sing "Prayer Perfect" at the 11 a.m. service.

The Women of the Church will meet on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Canyon Cubs on Post Office Tour

Since their trip through the new Oakland Post Office Annex recently, several cubs of Canyon-Moraga Cub Pack 57 are wavering in their decisions to be cowboys when they grow up—they think working in a large post office or driving a mail truck looks pretty exciting.

Accompanied by Den Mothers Ruth Seeds and Barbara Koch, Assistant Cubmaster Gregory Kazar, Committeeman Carlo Scholin and Den Chief Gordie Foster, the boys were taken by car to Oakland's main distributing center located at the foot of Grand Avenue.

A conducted tour through the huge building showed the boys the inside workings of a United States post office. They saw how regular mail, air mail and parcel post is received, sorted and distributed. They were impressed by the "caged workers" who handley only registered mail and especially interesting to them was the conveyor belt which carried the packages.

Some of the group commented on the strange heavy odor in the new building and it was pointed out to them that the floor of upended blocks (so much easier on the feet than concrete) had been impregnated with creosote as a preservative.

The day was complete when they saw and talked to their own Canyon-Moraga mail truck driver.

James Kings Move

Mr. and Mrs. James King have just moved to Palomares Court from Sunset Village ,where they resided fo rseveral months since their arrival from Chicago. King is with the Atomic Energy Commission in San Francisco. The couple have two youngsters, Patty 3, and one-year-old Michael.

Mrs. Mel Nielsen Film Group Head

The Lafayette Motion Picture Council met last week at the Ridge Road home of the new president, Mrs. Mel Nielsen.

Mrs. Nielsen succeeds Mrs. H. F. Neller. Mrs. Frank Behm was elected vice-president of the organization.

Mrs. Neller, organizer of the council ,resigned as president because of the pressure of other activities. She will remain a member of the council.

Resignation of Mrs. Harry Sommer as notification chairman was accepted. She resigned because of lack of time. Another notification chairman will be appointed.

Mrs. R. E. Sanderson of the Lafayette P.T.A. reported that eight members of that organization will assist Mrs. Paul Wilson, contact chairman ,during the children's Saturday matinees at the Park Theater in October.

It was announced that council meetings will be held at 11 a.m. the third Thursday of each month. Next meeting will be on November 20 at the home of Mrs. E. W. Caswell.

Joyce Gelhaus Will Dance at El Cerrito

Joyce Gelhaus, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gelhaus of 3364 Victoria Avenue, will dance at Fairmont School in El Cerrito tonight at 6:30 p.m. for the Dads Club.

On November 12 Joyce will perform at the Berkeley Shrine Club.

Local Persons at 'Color Carnival'

Several persons from this area were present at the "Color Carnival" sponsored by the Art League of the East Bay and held last Saturday at Diablo Country Club .

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ammen of 201 Crest View Drive, Orinda, were spotted in chlorophyll inspired costumes, while the Oliver Hamlins of Lafayette were in polka dotted clown uniforms.

Black magic outfits were the choice of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Shapiro of 18 La Vuelta, Orinda. Paul Hamilton of 12 Charles Hill Circle, Orinda, was in a costume representing a tropical bird.

Money from the affair will go towards helping hundreds of East Bay youngsters to enjoy free instruction in painting and allied crafts.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

CHEERS FOR THE LADIES OF PURPOSE and temperature control! For the last two weeks the local women who have been canvassing the lanes and alleys for the local scout drive have had to ignore the fact that it was between 90 and 100 in the shade.

There is nothing in the world quite so indomitable as a mother working for the good of the young — not only for her own but principally for those less fortunate ones whose needs are also served.

GREAT GAIETY AT THE ORINDA COUNTRY CLUB on Saturday afternoon as the guests at the wedding of Nancy Hockenbeamer and Robert Shurtleff cooled off their heated spirits with well-chilled spirits.

Visitors from the Southland — Mr. and Mrs. William Holabird, who have been visiting the E. R. Holabirds.

Seen at the X-Roads recently, after enjoying the football game, were the Richard Weeks', down from their St. Helena ranch in Napa Valley. There also the Stewart Dinwiddies celebrating Jean's birthday.

Back from Mendocino County, Mrs. Dorothy Lamb and daughter Lennie took an active part in the North Coast Fair there — Dorothy judged various flower displays, while Lennie took part in the 4-H program.

Report on Canadian weather from the Herbert Atkinsons of Camino Sobrante, who recently returned, is that Canada should be visited now. The Philip Chapmans (Sally Drewry), who have just returned from their honeymoon as far north as Jasper Park, make the same report and, besides, look radiant and happy.

At school the pressure is on to complete the Sleepy Hollow building. It seems the fourth graders are occupying the gymnasium at Orinda School and the "upper classmen" are brow-beating Joe Sheaff to "get them out of there."

Mothers Club Drive Concludes

The Orinda Mothers Club annual membership drive shifted into high gear this week with Glorietta School reporting membership of 98 per cent and Orinda School closely following with 97 per cent, Mrs Marvin Bonds, club president, announced.

The drive, which provides for school activities this year, closed yesterday and with nearly all reports in the following classes received prizes for 100 per cent participation:

First to score on the first day of the campaign was Ralph Henderson's Orinda School seventh grade. Second winners were Glen McNicholas' sixth grade and Mrs. Dorothy Hurley's third grade at Glorietta. Each of these three classes received a prize of $5, to be spent by the teachers for their own class needs.

Other prize winners, receiving $3 per class and with 100 per cent membership are, at Glorietta: Mrs. Mildred Parker's afternoon indergarten; Mrs. Barbara Woodard's afternoon kindergarten; Mrs. Harris Ray's first grade; Mrs. Nadia Nicholaysen's first grade; Mrs. Priscilla Andrews' first grade; Miss Mary Siefked's third grade; Mrs. Linda Dodds' third grade; Mrs. Imogene Benton's fourth grade; Mrs. Paula Collings' fourth grade' Mrs. Diana Boettcher's fifth grade; Miss Lisa Painter's fifth grade.

Additional Orinda School prize winners of $3 per class include Mrs. Marilyn Kaufman's second and third grade; Mr. Donald Wacks' seventh grade; Mr. James Comer's eighth grade; Mrs. Tulie Marttila's morning kindergarten; Mrs. Ethel O'Neill's afternoon first grade; Mrs. Theorita Canty's morning and afternoon kindergarten; Mrs. Charlotte Martinelli's fourth grade; Mrs. Georgia Harvell's fourth grade; Mrs. Dorothy Hollis' fifth grade; Mrs. Margaret Ulp's sixth grade and Miss Frances Tighe's seventh grade.

ORINDA HIGH SCHOOL MOTHERS CLUB will hold its first meeting of the school year next Monday at the home of Mrs. Nathan Gray. Officers are shown viewing a painting by Diane Green, winner of last year's club scholarship. Left to right are Mrs. Gray, vice-president; Mrs. P. F. Kops, program chairman; Mrs. R. B. H. S. Mothers To Hear 2 Talks on Do's for Parents

First meeting of the Orinda High School Mothers Club this school year will be held at the home of Mrs. Nathan Gray, 5 Soring Court, at 12:30 p.m. Monday. Lily Lahti, dean of girls at Acalanes High School, and David Stewart, dean of boys, will speak on "Do's for Parents."

Any special Do's and Dont's for students will be covered in a question-and-answer period which will follow.

New officers of the club are Mrs. R. E. Galbraith, president; Mrs. Nathan Gray, vice-president; Mrs. P. F. Kops, program chairman; Mrs. J. M. Tomlinson, recording secretary; Mrs. R. B. Muse, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Clifford Johnson, treasurer. Mrs. Bernard Ginsburg is tea chairman and Mrs. B. E. Monroe is publicity chairman.

Speaking of "Dues for Parents," the officers of the club hope that every mother of a high school student in the Orinda district will be present not only to hear the speakers but to pay her dues of $1. These small dues are the only way the Orinda High School Mothers Club has at present of raising the money for the $100 scholarship which is given to an outstanding student each year.

Last year's scholarship was won by Diana Green of Walnut Creek for art, and she is now attending the College of Arts and Crafts.

Dessert will be served by the refreshment committee for this meeting: Mrs. H. B. Oliphant, chairman, Mrs. R. D. Rodden and Mrs. R. A. Stark.

Yule Cards Will Depict Design Of New Church

Christmas cards will be printed incorporating the design of the proposed new St. Stephens' Episcopal Church which will be built on the property off Honey Hill Road in the Charles Hill area in Orinda, according to plans of the board of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary.

To be printed in etching black and white, the cards will reproduce the exterior perspective of the new church, which will be constructed in rustic redwood and brick in the English country church style. Orders may be placed with Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Auxiliary president.

Each month, on every second Thursday, an Auxiliary board meeting will be held, while every fourth Thursday the large general meeting of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary will take place.

Next general meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Lachman in Upper Happy Valley at 1 p.m. on October 23. Gues speaker will be Mrs. Duncan Knudsen, who recently returned from Europe.

Plans are going forward for the spring rummage sale and other events designed to enlarge the church building fund. Members are most anxious to see their church a reality, certain women even offered to sponsor small social affairs as fund-raisers on their own individual initiative. The Auxiliary calendar promises to be filled with events, large and small, keyed to St. Stephen's benefit, according to ways and means chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Detling.

Auxiliary dues of $2 are now payable to Mrs. W. R. Arends, 2 Valley View Drive, Orinda.

Meet Dramateurs' Cast–They'll Be in 'State of the Union', Fall Production

A week from next Thursday, on October 23, the curtain will rise at Acalanes High School auditorium stage at 8:15 p.m., and the Orinda Dramateurs will present their fall production, "State of the Union."

A timely political satire, this season's opener will be repeated on the two following Saturdays, October 25 and November 1.

AFTER A VIGOROUS membership campaign, the Dramateurs are pleased to present many new faces along with old favorites whom followers of the Dramateurs' productions have come to rely on for outstanding work.

Edward O'Brien, the group's successful director, is doubling in brass as director and actor, portraying one of the play's top roles— that of the smooth professional politician, James Conover.

ANOTHER FAMILIAR face will be that of Luke Kentfield—who will long be remembered for his comic portrayal of the frustrated fiance in last spring's production of "Dear Ruth." Luke is also doing double duty, for aside from his acting chores, he carries the load of the production department as head producer.

In a key supporting role is Leonard Nachman, who was last seen as Dear Ruth's father, and is remembered for his fine work in "Light Up the Sky."

ORINDANS WHO ARE trodding the boards for the first time locally are:

Dorothy Hanford (a former Berkeleyan now calling Hidden Valley home), who presents the portrait of a lovely leading lady; Betty Reynolds ,who makes that Southern accent in her part of Lulubelle sound so convincing—we checked, and sure enough, she was bo'n in Baltimoah; Lou Warner, who plays the wisecracking newspaperman, Spike McManus, and who used to warble in Berkeley High operettas; Pat Winkworth, who jumps from the title role in Berkeley Theater Workshop's "Madwoman of Chaillot" to the venomous "other woman" role of Kay Thorndyke—last spring Pat was seen locally in the Mothers Club revue, "Absurdia in Suburbia."

ALSO NEW to Orinda audiences is Monique Eschen, who hails from Paris, France, where she studied at the Ecole d'Art Dramatique under Jean Pascal and George Chamarat of the Comedie Francaise.

Completing the large cast are Orindans Margaret Kozak, Keene Pettengill, Bill Cary, Frank Wright, Bruce Winkworth, Frances Omo, Donald French and J. R. Smith.

Sunday Services Of St. Stephen's Set for 5 P.M.

With child care provided for all youngsters under three, services will be conducted by Rev. Charles M. Hill for members of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church at 5 p.m. Sunday, at the Orinda Community Church building.

Mrs. William Maddock and her daughter, Ann Marie, will entertain the toddlers at the nursery school wing, while children over three may attend regular Sunday School sessions held under direction of Mrs. Walter E. Christie.

DURING A MEETING at the vicarage, all Sunday school teachers conferred with Rev. Hill for the first time this fall for the purpose of outlining the year's youth program. Study for the young people promises to be of outstanding interest, according to Mrs. Christie.

In line with Rev. Hill's long experience with teen-agers, the new vicar of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church has started a course of study with the Young People's Fellowship, based on the text, "Guides to Christian Living."

HELD EACH SUNDAY from 7 to 8:30 p.m., the Fellowship will discuss first, "Making a Home," which includes youth and teen-age problems, and courtship and marriage viewed from the teen-age standpoint, with emphasis on adjustment of personality to family and working groups.

At the meeting last Sunday at the vicarage the young people included Carolyn Demeter, Jo Ann Knowles, Sally Ann Shipley, Linda St. Hill, Bill Siebert, Peter St. Hill, Bob Harrison and Chuck Gompertz.

The "Guides to Christian Living" program will extend over several months, and new members are welcome at any time, according to Rev. Hill.

St. Stephen's acolytes will meet on Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Orinda Community Church.

Cub Pack 211 Greets Members

New members of Cub Pack 211 were introduced by Bernard Wilber, cubmaster, last Friday night at the Orinda Community Church.

They were Steven Beckett, Randy Mack, Steven Sorick, Brian Traynor, Peter Lamb and Patrick Gilmore.

Dr. W. E. Eller of the Lions Club, the group that sponsors the pack, presented certificates to several adults who help the cubs.

These awards were presented to Wilber, Dr. R. A. Stark, Frank Newman, Clay Sorrick, Mrs. Betty Olson and Mrs. Laura Clay.

Dens 2 and 5 won the inspection award. Den 5 also won the attendance award.

Dons Meet Cougars Tonight

Acalanes Gridders Improving; Albany Is Not Too Strong

The Acalanes gridders are in their second week of league play, after both the Varsity and J. V. elevens defeated Alhambra in the league openers last week.

The Don Varsity plays the Albany Cougars at Acalanes at 8 o'clock tonight, and the Don Junior Varsity played Albany J. V. yesterday afternoon at Albany.

The Don Varsity has been improved each week, and hit a new high when it scored a smashing 34-13 win over Alhambra High last Friday night.

The Dons' backfield of Jim Burns, Ray Williamson and Roger Owen appears fit and ready to go, with either Bart Ferro or Sam Indelicato doing the signal calling.

The line finds Jim Small or Mike White at left end, with Jerry Henderson on the right flank. Andy Monsen looks to be ready at right tackle, as does Jim Chapman at left tackle. George Fortado and Bill Johnson are slated for the guard posts, with Gary Howerton at the pivot position.

THE DONS' RUNNING and passing attack is on the upgrade but the Dons will have to sharpen their defense, particularly versus the aerial game, if they are to stay in the win column. Alhambra completed 13 out of 18 tosses and that's too many for comfort.

The coaching staff has been hard at work all week on pass defense drills, and it has been experimenting with shifts in personnel. Jack Ravazza is slated for first string defensive duty, as is Tim Daniels.

ALBANY DROPPED its opening game to Diablo by a resounding 51-7 score when it could not do right and Diablo could do no wrang

The Dons were rated heavy favorites in '51, but came away with a 7-6 win in the early stages of the game.

The Albany Cougars held five slightly injured players out of the Diablo game but all hands were reported ready for action in tonight's game.

ACES OF THE Albany attack are Kent McDonald in the backfield, who runs and passes from his Q. B. spot, and Ends Dorsey and Patch, who are a definite threat when Albany takes to the air. Patch and Dorsey will be remenbered as aces of Albany's basketball team.

The Albany eleven is coached by Craige Ortlieb, one-time Acalanes grid mentor, and operates from the "Split T," along with a spread formation attack.

The Dons will operate out of their conventional version of the T, relying on power and quick thrusts plus a passing attack that appears to be developing with each outing.

THE DONS ARE slight favorites but the Cougars are pointing for this one, and the Dons will have to be at their best of they are to keep their league record entirely in the win column.

Fresh from a 38-0 win over the hapless Bullpups of Alhambra High, the Don J. V. club, as yesterday's game was about to start, looked ready for stiffer competition, with a set of fleet backs and a steadily improving line.

In such backs as Keith Lescure, Dave Marcellini, John Wahl, Jim Watkins, Richard Munn and Dennis Busby, Red Jones and John Conley, the charges of Coaches Bob Stevens and Gene Ridley appeared to have the stuff to score often.

Albany dropped a 25-0 tilt to Diablo in the J. V. game last week, and on that basis the Don Babes entered the game as favorites.

NEXT WEEK the Don Varsity draws a bye in league play, while the J. V. eleven meets the Las Lomas Knights.

Vikings Beat SF State; Tonight–Marin

Former Dons again played a major role for the Contra Costa Junior College East Campus as the Vikings pummeled San Francisco State College Reserves 25-7 last Saturday night under the lights of Alhambra High's gridiron in Martinez.

Bob Borghesani played offensive end and defensive safety, doing a bang-up job in both spots. Howard Andrews played as a defensive halfback, while John Daniels did some good work hitting the line from the offensive fullback spot. And Don Kun did his bit as a guard.

TONIGHT'S GAME against College of Marin at Kentfield finds six former Acalanes athletes on the Viking traveling squad—Borghesani, Andrews, Daniels, Kun, Jim Forni and George Kallas. The six-foot-four, 200-pound Borghesani is one of the main cogs of the Vikings.

Kickoff for the Kentfield clash is set for 8 o'clock.

The victory over San Francisco State was the Vikings' third straight win this season, giving them an unblemished record after trouncing Grant Tech of Sacramento 33-12 and Vallejo J.C. 31-20.

IT WAS THE VIKINGS all the way last Saturday night. They scored with ease to rack up a 19-0 first quarter lead and went on for the decisive 25-7 win over an eleven that offered but passive resistance to the running and passing attack of the J.C.

Coaches Hal Buffa and Hugh Boschetti swept the bench, with all hands seeing action. The first string eleven was on the sidelines a good part of the game and received a rest in preparation for the league encounter with Marin tonight.

Acalanes Smashes Bulldogs, 34-13, In League Opener

The Acalanes Dons came through with sure brilliant playing last Friday night and rolled to victory with a decisive 34-13 win over the Bulldog eleven of Alhambra High.

The game, played at the Martinez Field, was the first league tilt of the '52 season and found the Dons working like a well-oiled machine to notch the win.

THE BACKFIELD, with Jim Burns and Roger Oewen at halfbacks, along with Ray Williamson at full and Bart Ferro sharing signal calling, proved to be a combination, an eleven that would score when the line opened gaping holes time and again.

The passing was good and had the receiving been a bit sharper, the score might have gone even higher.

The Dons posted a touchdown in the opening quarter when Owen rambled 20 yards to cross the goal line standing up after the Dons had gained possession on the 45-yard stripe.

FERRO TOSSED a 20-yard pass to End, Mike White, in the second quarter and it ended up on the 9-yard stripe from where Owen went on a quick smash to the 1. With seconds remaining in the half, Burns cracked right guard for TD number 2.

Sammy Indelicato kicked both conversion tries, splitting the uprights on each occasion, with John Champlain doing the holding. So the score was 14-0 at halftime.

EARLY IN THE THIRD quarter Owen took a pass from Ferro on the 8-yard line and rambled over the goal line untouched, and it was 21-0 when Indelicato crossed-up the defense with a convedsion pass to catch in the end zone.

Reserves took over at this point, and Alhambra scored when the Dons fumbled and it ended up with Charlies Tourville scoring on a cutback from 5 yards out, after a 72-yard drive. The conversion try went wide.

SECONDS LATER the Dons scored when Burns took the ball on areverse play and raced 42-yards down the sideline to score standing up. Indelicato put his toe to the ball and made the try for point good.

The score stood 28-6 at this point, and the action was fast in the remaining minutes. Alhambra passed and ran their way to another score when Acalanes fumbled on their own 21-yerd line, and Alhambra added the coversion kick.

BUT JIM BURNS came back with a dazzling 82-yard kickoff return which ended up on the five.

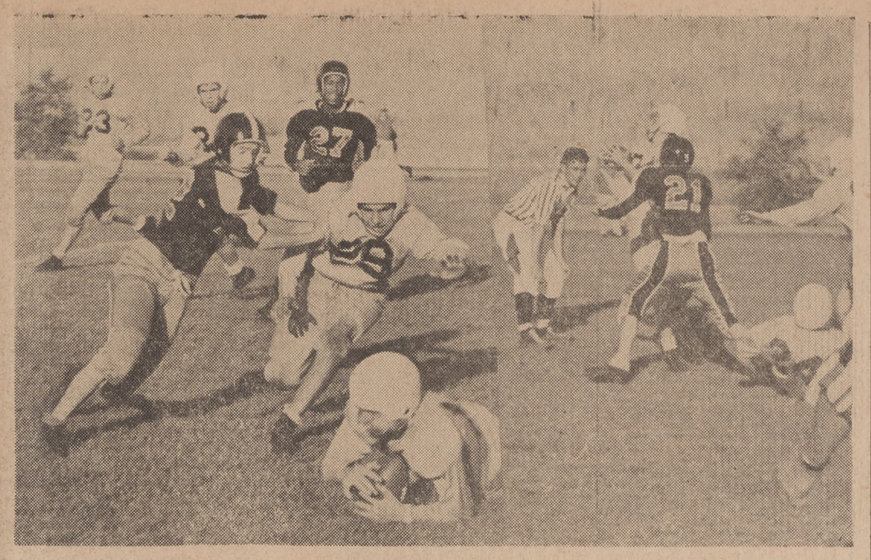
Time was running out but the Acalanes eleven came through with a bang when Williamson hit tackle to the three and Indelicato took it over from there on a QB sneak.

That made it 34-13, and that's the way it stayed when a bad pass from center fouled up the try for point.

Ray Williamson in the fullback spot proved to be one of the league's best as he pounded the line for valuable yardage, and he was a pillar of strength on defense.

Gary Howerton was at his best as an offensive center and showed some good blocking.

Jim Small, Mike White, and Jerry Henderson were standouts as ever, while the running of Owen and Burns was the best of the year.



THE LAS LOMAS HIGH SCHOOL KNIGHTS were really on the ball in the second half of last week's game with Pittsburg. They lost 21-0 with all of Pittsburg's points coming in the first half. The local youngsters held them from there on out, and their alert fumble recoveries was one of the main reasons. Pouncing on the ball in the left photo is Knight Don Kavert. Driving in to help him is Arnold Lahde, No. 29. Coming up in the background are Rick Ostrom, 23, and Gary Williamson. The left photo shows Gary Williamson picking off one of those airborne fumbles. Also pictured are Don Ogden, 24, and Dale Iness, 26. Watching the play is Referee Allan Bartlett, Walnut Creek Grammar School teacher.

Las Lomas Team New Playing in League Contests

Las Lomas High opened its 1952 football season officially on October 2 when it played host to the Pittsburg Pirates.

Entered in the Junior Varsity section of league play, the Las Lomas eleven put up a surprisingly good showing when it played some good ball to hold the Pirate Babes to a 21-0 win.

ALL OF PITTSBURG'S scores came in the opening half. The two teams battled scoreless in the second half.

The Las Lomas team entering its first year of play under the guidance of Head Coach Merle Callow and Line Coach Ed Lahey is an inexperienced group composed of 35 freshmen and sophomores.

THE ONLY EXPERIENCE up to game time consisted of practice sessions and a scrimmage with San Ramon High's Reserves held earlier in the season.

Thise week's league game found the Las Lomas Eleven traveling to Martinez yesterday to meet up with the Alhambra High Bullpups. The game was played in late afternoon, too late for results to be reported here.

Alhambra's Bullpups were trounced 38-0 by the Dons in their initial game and as a result yesterday's game appeared, before gametime to be a tossup despite Alhambra's edge in experience and numbers.

STARTERS for Las Lomas as announced by Coach Merle Callow were:

Acalanes, Las Lomas JV's to Meet Thursday

The Acalanes Junior Varsity has a day of work next Thursday, as far as league play is concerned when they meet up with Las Lomas High in a league game at the Las Lomas gridiron in Walnut Creek, while the Don Varsity will rest, due to a league bye.

The Junior Varsities' kickoff is slated for 3:30 p.m.

DUE TO EXPERIENCE and numbers, plus the fact that the Dons have one of their better J.V. elevens, Acalanes enters the fray in the role of favorite.

The Las Lomas eleven appears to improve with each outing, and a surprise may be in store for the Dons come game time.

THE DON BABES have some outstanding backs in Dick Jarret, Keith Lescure, Richard Munn and Dennis Busby. In "Red" Richard Jones and John Conley they have two of the league's better quarterbacks, coupled with the fact that both toss excellent passes and present a real aerrial threat.

In the line the Don standouts are Tackle Andy Fadelli and Guards Jon Palmer and Dick Ong.

STANDOUT BACKS for Las Lomas are Halfbacks Dick Stanley and Rick Ostrom, while Quarterback Bob Lucas appears to be a comer.

In the line Tackle Bob LaForce appears to be one of the best.

Sportsmanship Trophy Now Offered by High School League; Dons Bid Strong

By ERWIN MATTSON

ONE OF THE LATEST INNOVATIONS of the Contra Costa High School League is a trophy for sportsmanship.

A committee is to evaluate each school's sportsmanship throughout the school year. This evaluation will deal with rooting sections, bands and spectators.

The trophy is quite an impressive affair, and is on display at Acalanes High.

One thing certain is that the Dons will make a strong bid to keep the trophy at Acalanes.

The rooting section at Acalanes has been terrific the past two years and has an outstanding effect on players and the public in general.

The band has been outstanding and made its mark when it came home with a cup from the Walnut Festival, after having had to beat out some top-notch outfits in order to do it.

The band is a growing organization, and its stock goes up each week with its outstanding between-half stunts plus some top melody.

It takes more than a team to make a successful season. The band, rooting section and spectators are all an integral part of what makes football a great game.

THE DONS PLAY HOME tonight in their second home game and second league game of the season. An added attraction will be programs with pictures and team lineups along with a story of the game.

The program is sponsored by the Block Letter Society and is made possible through the ads placed by cooperative merchants of the area.

The football race is well under way, with all elevens except Pittsburg having a league game under their belts.

Pittsburg drew a bye, but gets into the act tonight when they tackle Antioch at Antioch.

On the basis of games to date the Red Devils of Diablo oppear to be the favorites, but the fact remains that games are never decided until they are played.

The league's dark horse appears to be John Swett, which racked a favored Antioch eleven 13-0 and looked impressive in doing it.

FORTUNATELY, the Dons draw a bye next week before meeting the highly-rated Indians of John Swett. Another factor in favor of the Dons is that they will meet Crockett in a night game on the local gridiron.

Crockett and Albany, not having lights, play all home games in the afternoon, and as a rule teams used to night ball have difficulty reaching a pitch in daylight play.

Personally, I like night ball for two reasons. First, because players do not get as tired and, as a result, injuries are few. Also, it enables people to see the games, and any athlete likes to be watched while he is performing.

IT IS GOING TO BE interesting to see how the Dons fare in league grid play this season. In their practice tilts they tackled two of the East Bay's best, and, while they lost both, they came through on the long end as far as playing experience is concerned, and in the El Cerrito game, came within an ace of upsetting the dope bucket.

Perhaps the most improved back on the Don Varsity is Jim Burns, who has won a starter's spot at right half. Jim played Junior Varsity up to this season, but really hit his stride when he hit Varsity play.

One of the big factors in Jim's improvement has been contact lenses which enable him to see as well as the next fellow. He just got the lenses prior to football, and he is now one of the county's better backs.

Incidentally, it is quite a feat putting the contact lenses on. A liquid is placed in each glass before it is put in place, and one problem is to do it without getting air bubbles. Jim practically stands on his head in the process but is quite a pro at it now.

Lloyd Torchio, ex-Don who plays center on the Cal Varsity, is also wearing contact lenses, as does Jack Stirton, who is becoming a standout on the Cal Ramblers.

EYESIGHT IS CERTAINLY a vital factor in a game such as football.

Another important factor other than "just seeing" is the field of vision. Some people take in a much wider field than do others. A wide field of view is certainly an advantage to a quarterback, defensive player or pass receiver.

Torchio in Bid For Center at Cal

A very promising sophomore in the center of the line for the University of California footballers this season and in season's to come is Lafayette's Lloyd Torchio, former Acalanes three-letter man.

Considered an all-around player in the center spot, Lloyd's greatest asset to the team is on defense. His powerful frame — six feet, one and a half inches; 196 pounds — and quick recovering on tricky plays make him a very agile candidate for a right linebacker's position.

As a freshman last season, the Lafayette boy played entirely with the Junior Varsity squad. He showed up then as a highly-rated prospect this season. Lloyd should be well on his way to a Varsity berth as the season progresses.

Lloyd graduated in 1950 from Acalanes, where he was center on the Varsity football team, shortstop on the baseball team and center on the basketball team.

Peerless' Neck Out – But Prof Still Picks 'em

By PROF. PEERLESS

The old Professor Peerless is a bit late in starting, but after surveying the field he gives you some choice choices in the mad pigskin parade.

The Pacific Coast Conference has gained stature as a result of a successful intersectional series of games, and it could be that the Rose Bowl contender could cop that elusive win in the New Year's Day classic at Pasadena.

THE GOLDEN BEARS tangle with the Oregon Beavers at Portland, and it looks like a Bear win, comfortable but not overwhelming —28 to 7, with Oregon's defense a problem the first half.

Stanford looks better than expected but will have a time with Oregon State. Oregon State will feel its oats as a result of nearly upsetting highly rated Michigan State. Stanford ,20; Oregon State, 14.

U.C.L.A. ROLLS ON and Rice takes the count 28-6, while Washington surprises with Illinois winning—but close, 20-14.

Southern California wins as it pleases with San Diego Navy going down 35-7.

San Jose looks to have the makings of a good club, and Fresno proves it with a 32-7 drubbing from the Prune Pickers.

IN THE LOCAL high school circuit, league play enters its second week and Diablo appears to be the favorite on the basis of an undefeated record to date.

John Swett meets Diablo and appears capable of exerting the Diablo Devils, but lack of enough horses means a Diablo win, 21-6.

Pittsburg, stung by two practice losses, hits the win column 32-13, with Antioch on the losing end.

ACALANES MEETS Albany, and it's tougher than it looks on paper, with the Dons winning, but close, 13-12.

Alhambra wins but it's no count in league standings as they defeat Emeryville High 20-6 in a practice game.

That's it for this week. So long 'til next week.

Don Babes Whip Bullpup Eleven To Tune of 38-0

The Acalanes J.V. left no doubt in the mind of anyone as to which was the best of the two elevens when it trounced the Alhambra J.V. club October 2, in a game played on the Acalanes gridiron, by a decisive 38-0 score.

It was the Dons all the way. They rambled to a score in the opening minutes of play and went on to score twice more, to leave the field with a 20-0 halftime lead after Red Jones kicked two out of three conversions.

IN THE SECOND half the Dons swept the bench clear, but the scoring rolled on, with three more T.D. plays going up on the scoreboard to make the final count 38-0.

John Conley did some good ball handling and passed well. In addition, he galloped around end for a 50-yard score.

ON ANOTHER OCCASION he tossed a pass to End Larry Witter, with the pass and run good for 50 yards and six points.

Keith Lescure pounded over from three and five yards to score twice from the fullback spot, while Halfback Richard Munn scooted around end for 30 yards to score standing up, and Halfback Dick Jarrett scrambled 10 yards to score when he took a lateral from Gary Gudnason.

The Don Babes were in command throughout the game and ran up yardage at will against an inept and green opponent.

Meet Ridley – J.V. Already Knows Him Well

Gene Ridley is a new teacher in the Boys' Physical Education Department at Acalanes, and he is fast proving himself to be a top-notch man. He works with the Junior Varsity line and takes time out to give varsity players good coaching.

He has been particularly valuable in helping ends. Gene was an All-Coast end at College of the Pacific and has a wide field of experience.

Two New Rose Winners Now Available

Meet Ma Perkins and Chrysler Imperial, the new 1953 All-America rose winners now available from your nurseryman for fall planting.

Ma Perkins is a lovely new floribunda — a sparkling coral-shell pink with a sweet fragrance. The plants grow to a height of about three feet and produce large clusters of flowers. Its color and habit make it especially useful for hedges, foundation plantings and border edgings.

Chrysler Imperial, a hybrid tea of deep crimson with a super-fragrance, is a "natural" for show purposes. Whether in a formal bed or a more casual grouping, it will be a center of attraction in any garden. Growth is strong and compact; flowers are large and beautifully formed with 40 to 50 petals which hold well after cutting.

FLORIBUNDAS are a fairly recent development in the rose world — but their popularity is increasing tremendously. Two other outstanding varieties are Vogue, a 1952 winner, and Fashion, recipient of the 1950 award.

In the hybrid tea class, standout performers include Fred Howard and Helen Traubel, both 1952 award winners. Helen Traubel, named for the famous opera star, is a delicate apricot pink. Fred Howard, named in honor of the late rosarian, is a rich yellow pncilled with soft pink.

HARDY ROSES in a color range to suit every taste are available for planting this fall if orders are placed early enough. The All-America varieties are always in great demand, and nurserymen cannot always supply late comers.

AARS roses have the familiar green and white label, the gardener's assurance that the variety has been tested all over the country.

Booklets Offer Attic Pointers

If you are long on unused attic space and short on ideas about what to do with it or how to do it, then there are two booklets available to you that may help.

One is a series of suggestions for remodeling an attic. Primarily it is an idea piece that suggests ways to fix up a children's room, a study, a sewing room or a guest room.

The other is a detailed case study of one big attic remodeling project that discusses construction details, paneling materials and finish treatments.

The first is entitled "Make Your Attic Picture Pretty" and the second "Pointers On Remodeling An Attic." Both are available at ten cents each from Douglas Fir Plywood Association, Tacoma 2, Wash.

African Violets, Mums at Show of Orchard Nursery

An African Violet display will be a highlight of the Open House at Orchard Nursery this Saturday and Sunday.

The collection is under the guidance of Constance Hansen of Lafayette. Collectors throughout Northern California look forward to the outstanding exhibit which Stewart Wade and Jack Schneider, owners of Orchard Nursery, always provide.

Another feature will be a display of early flowering Chrysanthemums from the Laurentine Hybridizing gardens in Compton.

Mrs. George Bowersox of Walnut Creek, known to all garden club people as "the Chrysanthemum Lary," will preside as hostess at the Chrysanthemum information desk.

Dr. Ira B. Cross of Berkeley, president of the Chrysanthemum Study Club of the East Bay, and nationally known Chrysanthemum specialist, will visit the display and share his techical knowledge with Chrysanthemum lovers.

Ernest Wertheim, noted landscape architect, has arranged the attractive background for the display.

The Chrysanthemum show will be under the direction of Mrs. Laura Safford, Chrysanthemum hybridizer of Compton.

Getting Maximum From That Room Really Simple . . .

As homes get smaller it becomes more important to get as much use out of each room as possible.

There is no reason, then, why a berdoom should serve just for a sleeping room and stand idle during the day and early evening.

By the application of few imaginative ideas in arrangement and decorating tricks, you can turn this room into an "activities area" by day and bedroom by night.

The fundamental problem, of course, is to camouflage the bed. This can be done in two ways—either by the use of a sofa bed that opens at night for secondary use, or by the use of mattress and box spring combinations on frame with covers and bolsters tailored to the decor of the room.

PERHAPS YOU'LL want the television set in this room. Make sure it is so located as to sit at a vantage point for viewing, best at the deep end of the room.

If there is room, this the perfect place for the desk and space for the household files and notes, bills, receipts and policies.

A coffee table, and perhaps a few folding or stacking snack tables will provide valuable service accessories when refreshments are served.

THIS IS ALSO the ideal spot for the record collection, radio and phonograph.

All of these units, along with the TV set, can be built into an entire wall of bookshelves and cabinets to give ample storage for the entertainment equipment as well as drawer space for the normal needs of a bedroom.

Your Garden

Planning in Fall Makes for Colorful Outdoor Living Space All Year-'Round

By BERT WRIGHT

FALL PLANTING gives the home gardener a running start for next year. At this time of the year, you can best check over your property to see the improvements that should be made.

Perhaps a hedge or tree here, renewal of the foundation planting, a home fruit garden, or plantings to attract more birds, or improve the outdoor living space so it will be colorful all year long.

Evergreens, especially, should be planted at this time. They have had their full growth, and have hardened off, leaving them in excellent condition to move from the nursery to your property.

The color pageant of summer, fall or winter is always enriched by liberal plantings of evergreens. In the summer they offer distinctive and contrasting foliage. This is likewise true in the fall, when other foliage has ripened and changed. In the winter, evergreens remind us of summer's green and comfort, and add a warm touch to the property during cold, forbidding weather.

FRUIT TREES, their fruits ripening in the fall, likewise extend the wealth of color into the cooler months. Not many things are more appealing than a tree loaded with apples, peaches, pears, crabapples or quinces.

Much of next year's garden success depends on careful preparations you make this fall. Trees, shrubs and vines should be planted where you want them. Perennials can be set so they can become established before cold weather.

HERE ARE A FEW hints for more successful fall planting:

1. — In transplanting, do not allow plants to dry out. If you are delayed during the transplanting, heel the plants in the ground and water them well, until you are ready to put them in their proper places.

2. — Balled and burlapped plants should be lifted by the ball. It is not necessary to remove the burlap, just slit it at the top after the ball is set in place. Be sure to dig a hole large enough to hold the ball and allow plenty of soil to be packed around it.

The hole should be dug deeper than the plant originally grew, filling in the bottom first with a mixture of soil and complete plant food, then with a layer of topsoil. Water liberally until the water soaks the roots and earth completely.

Plants like azaleas should be planted in a hole three times as wide as the ball. You can't go wrong by doing this with most trees and shrubs.

3. — PLAN YOUR SHRUB and tree plantings to add a combination of pleasing foliage, flowers, such as roses, and berries and fruits to your property from spring through fall, with liberal use of evergreens for color and contrast the year-around.

4. — Consult with your nurseryman, who can advise you how to adapt your planting to the needs of your individual property.

Combination – Use Table Easy Job

Occasional furniutre like a combination table can be built with plywood by almost anybody who can muster a hammer and saw.

The table is 48" long, 16" wide and 30" high. It can be finished to harmonize with any decorative scheme and will serve for books, magazines or knick-knacks in living room, den or bedroom.

You can build the piece with ¾" Handy Panels—the new stock small sizes of Douglas fir plywood now available at many retail lumber yards or you can cut all the parts from on 4' by 8' panel.

Plans can be obtained from local lumber dealers or from Douglas Fir Plywood Association, Tacoma 2, Washington.

ELECTRIC SYSTEM

Your car may have an excellent fire rateing but just the same that act of yours in the handling of a repair job will not result in a fire, is no assurance that some careless warns the National Automobile Club.

Record Cabinet For Full Albums

Few bookshelves are big enough to handle record albums but you can solve this the easy way by building a record cabinet with plywood.

The cabinet is made from ¾" paneds and the pieces can be cut out and assembled by anyone with average skill in handling simple carpenter's tools.

Cut pieces to make a cabinet 30" high without legs, 28⅝" wide and 26" long. If you like to work with plans, they are available from your local retail lumber dealer or from Douglas Fir Plywood Association, Tacoma 2, Wash.

Educator Discusses Need in County For Park and Recreation Facilities

Ferdinand S. Ruth of East Contra Costa Junior College and the American Audobon Society, speaking at the Contra Costa Park Council's open meeting in Brentwood recently, said some 3,000 new families are settling in this county each month, and yet county recreation facilities have remained the same as they were 10 years ago before a fantastic three-fold increase in population.

Deploring the county's lack of progress in the recreational field, Ruth illustrated his point by showing a slide of the county's one developed park, Hayden at Pacheco, as it appeared during last winter's floods. Only an activated citizenry could change this situation, he insisted.

THE CURRENT campaign to make a state aquatic park of Frank's Tract, the bass fishing grounds near Bethle Island, was explained by Cornelius (Connie) Klein of Bethed Island, who suggested a coordination of efforts with the park council.

Chairman Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek assured Klein the survey firm which will make a complete study of the county's park needs would investigate aquatic park possibilities

Such a park would be within the realm of county planning, he pointed out, because county money would have to go into it on a matching funds basis.

Fointing to the Board of Supervisors' recent appropriation of $8500 as the council's first successful hurdle, Burton announced another council success.

A COMMITTEE of park planners chosen by the council will investigate and recommend survey firms to the county planning commission and generally advise the county group.

Members of this advisory board, one from each supervisorial district, will be announced aftetr their appointments are confirmed by the supervisors.

Financial and moral support will be required of organizations and individuals to keep the council's public education program going and to insure that the survey recommendation will be carried out, Burton told the group.

Membership dues will be $1 for individuals and $3 for organizations, with all money to go toward clerical expenses.

John Mathews of Westcliffe Lane, Walnut Creek, will be membership chairman, Burton announced.

THE JUNIOR COLLEGE instructor described the educational and cultural advantages of a regional-type park and assured his listeners that the Audobon Society, America's largest private conservation association, and the junior college, would cooperate with the council.

Ruth in return asked the council members attend the college and society-sponsored series of "Wildlife in Action" programs, which begin at Mt. Diablo High School auditorium Tuesday.

Central county residents attending included Burton, Ruth, Mathews, Secretary Eva Clune, Juanita Robinson and John Nejedly of Walnut Creek; Anne Glass, Ina Mae Boyd and Rosemary MacQuarrie of Concord, and Marie Richards and Verna Lyford of Martinez.

19 Scholarship Winners Start College Careers

Nineteen Acalanes scholarship winners from the Don senior class of 1952 entered colleges throughout the nation last month.

Three winners of Harvard Scholarships (the first time three Harvard scholarships have ever been awarded to one school the same year) Art Siler, Howard Flanders and Richard Rogers, left for the East.

Richard Hubach is attending the University of Oklahoma; Barbara Springston and Ann Seulberger, Wellesley; and Loretta Dalby entered Brigham Young University in Utah.

Others attending college on academic scholarships are Lois Galbraith and Sven Groenings, Stanford; Elmer Grimes, Marilyn Hansen, Eric Murray, Jayne Kirk and Edward Greub, University of California; Pat Malvey, Santa Barabar College; Diana Green, California College of Arts and Crafts.

Marjorie Winterton and Joyce Johnson are attending Merritt Nursing School on scholarships.

Area Women Aid In Preparations For Yule Seal Sale

Volunteers from all sections of the county have been reporting regularly at the office of the Contra Costa Public Health Association in Martinez to work on the Christmas Seal Sale lists, according to Mrs. H. B. Keating, Seal Sale chairman. This assistanse from Contra Costans will make it possible for the association to maintain its mailing list of 70,000 names for the Annual Seal Sale campaign, which will open November 17.

"Every hour of volunteer service means that much more money for the tuberculosis control program of the association," Mrs. Keating said. "We are supporting an occupational therapy program for the tuberculosis patients at the County Hospital, helping with the Health Departments' case finding and trying to reach groups of all ages with scientific information about tuberculosis."

Among the Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda women who are participating in this work are:

Mesdames Henry Green, L. D. Tycer, J. A. Thomas, Carl H. Brooks, A. C. Stewart, Leonard H. Ford, L. H. Castlio and T. V. Foster, Walnut Creek; Charles M. Court, J. W. Acalanes Film Described in Magazine

"The Acalanes Story," a color 16mm film made by the Acalanes School District last year as a report to the community on the development of the district, the educational program and the district's future plans and problems, received national recognition last month in a special article in the "School Executive" magazine, widely read national education publication.

The article, written by Acalanes Superintendent Neil M. Parsons, traces the planning, filming process, content and distribution of the picture, emphasizing the utility of the motion picture medium for vividly presenting the problems of public education to the community.

The "School Executive" article features six photos illustrating problems in taking the film, film content and reception of the film by local service clubs. Members of the Walnut Creek Lions are pictured viewing "The Acalanes Story."

The magazine describes the decision of the Acalanes School Board to present data on the school district to the public through the effective medium of film, concluding that the film created wider public interest in school problems, better public understanding of the school program and a general appreciation of the educational work being undertaken by the Acalanes District.

The film, "The Acalanes Story," is still open for showing, school officials report.

Health Group to Meet Wednesday

A dinner meeting of the Board of Directors of the Contra Costa Public Health Association will be held Wednesday at Paul's in Martinez, according to Mrs. George Vurek of Orinda, president.

"The theme of the program is to be 'Health Education Is Action,'" said Mrs. Vurek.

Guest speakers will be Dr. John Gompertz, director of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association, and Ethel Mealey, health education consultant, Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Harold DeFraga, vice-president and chairman of the assoociation's Information and Public Relations Committee, will be moderator. DeFraga is also in charge of arrangements and program for the meeting. A new educational exhibit prepared by the association will be on display.

"Reservations for the dinner," said Mrs. Vurek, "may be made at the office of the Contra Costa Public Health Association, 502 Ward Street, Martinez, telephone Martinez 2450." Interested persons are welcome to attend, she added.

Christian Science Sermon announced

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question will be answered in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday in citations from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

From Isaiah the following verses will be read:

"Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: . . . not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed ,neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken . . . And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity" (33:20, 24).

The correlative passages from Science and Health will include this definition of Salvation: "Life, Truth, and Love understood and demonstrated as supreme over all; sin, sickness, and death destroyed" (p. 593).

Several Attend Weimar Meeting

Several persons from this county attended a recent meeting of the Weimar Council in Sacramento.

They were Mrs. George Vurek and Mrs. L. L. Farrar of Orinda, Mrs. Mary Johansen, Contra Costa Public Health Association; Lillian Wurzel, County Hospital; Dr. Glen Kent, Mrs. Jane Castor, County Health Department, and Miss Virginia Dontanville, Richmond Health Department.

The Weimar Council is composed of representatives of the Tuberculosis Associations and other health and welfare agencies of the 15 counties participating in the Weimar Joint Sanatorium.

Political News: You Can't Win!

That old, slightly ironic query, "What paper d'ya read, bud?", has seemed to become "How do you read the paper?"

Meaning, specifically, political news and editorials in THE SUN. Despite leaning over backward in an effort to be fair and impartial, it appears we just can't please everybody.

THE SUN is trying to be as fair as possible in this election campaign. We are not endorsing or supporting any candidate. Generally, as expressed in the past, The SUN does not endorse any candidate unless there's a dangerous situation.

In the current campaign, we feel the major candidates for Congress and the State Assembly are good men and that the people are capable of deciding for themselves whom they'll vote for.

So we present both sides. But look what happens . . .

Not long ago, in the Walnut Creek Sun, we ran a picture of an empty lot which the walnut growers were planning to lease to the city for a parking area. On this site was a small sign for Baldwin for Congress— and the sign got in the picture. Wow! Judging from a couple of calls from irate Democrats, you'd think the photo was a G. O. P. plot!

Shortly after that, there appeared a picture of a Gregory Gardens Improvement Association meeting, where Condon was one of the speakers. Came objections from some Republicans—"How come?"

And last week there was the news of Gardiner Johnson's attack on Condon and Condon's answer.

We'll print this so that no one can complain," the editor mumbled naively. It even got to the point that 16 paragraphs were to be devoted to the Johnson story, and 16 to the Condon story which is a silly way to present news. But somehow it turned out that Condon got 17 paragraphs, and Johnson 16. Both articles were printed prominently on page 1 of The SUN.

Think everyone was happy? Hah! Democrats phoned: Why was Condon's statement at the bottom of the page, while Johnson's was toward the top?

Republicans phoned: Why did Johnson's statement get a smaller headline than Condon's—and why only eight and a half inches of two-column type for Johnson, when Condon got 12 and three-eighths inches of two-column type?

At that point, we were just about ready to give up. But a sense of our responsibility—and, we hope, a sense of humor—saved the day.

IN CONNECTION WITH ALL THIS, we'd like to point out a few things:

This is a predominantly Republican area. So, obviously, in reporting local news, we must devote more space to Republican activity than to Democratic activity.

Furthermore, up until last week we received very little Democratic news that was of immediate interest to this area—while the Republican groups here were very active. For every Democratic story, there has been—and there probably will be—four or five Republican stories.

There are numerous Republican organizations active in our local communities. There's not one permanent active Democratic organization on the local scene.

DESPITE THIS, as we've said, we try to be as fair as possible and give all candidates an equal "break."

But still, pleasing everybody seems about as impossible as reaching Utopia. Maybe it all depends on how the reader reads the paper.

Give to Scout Drive

Brochure Tells What Donations To Scouting Mean

Because of a shortage of Girl Scout-Boy Scout Joint Fund Drive brochures which scouting units distributed from house to house in the Lafayette area, the committee in charge of the drive here wishes to let every resident know the message of the leaflets.

The message in the leaflet tells you where the money you contributed goes — or if you haven't yet gotten around to contributing, it's a powerful argument for your donating right now. The brochure says:

WHEN YOU INVEST in Scouting . . . you invest in "America Preferred." You invest in the Scout promise — the Scout law . . . You do a good turn for youth . . . and for yourself!

More than 1880 Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers get character-citizenship training from 600 men and Den Mothers in Meridian District, Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Nearly 1800 Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors under 600 adults in the Diablo Valley Area Council Girl Scouts of the United States.

GIVE AT HOME . . . Scouting in this area does not receive any portion of contributions made to United Fund or United Crusade in San Francisco or Alameda County. $39,000 is needed for 1953 in these communities . . . Orinda, Alamo, Danville, Diablo, Gregory Gardens, Lafayette, Moraga, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Ygnacio Valley and Sherman Acres.

Scouting gives every girl and boy a chance for fun, achievement, recognition . . . under the companionship and guidance of outstanding trained volunteer leaders in your own communities.

HERE'S HOW your $10 will be used: $4 for service to Packs, Troops, Explorer Units, $2.35 for training of volunteer leaders, $1.60 for camp supervision and maintenance, $1.05 for insurance, awards, public relations and extension, $1 for general administrative expense. (No paid campaign directors or workers.)

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts need your support! Give enough for both. One of your neighbors who has volunteered to assist in this Scout Fund Drive will call on you during the next few days. Please have your check ready, or mail it to Diablo Area Scouts, P. O. Box 819, Lafayette, Calif.

If for some reason you are missed when your neighborhood volunteer comes around, just call Mrs. George Houghton, Lafayette 3473, and you will be contacted.

Baby Clothes, Bottles and Blankets Needed by Tots in Korean Orphanage

"Had I not you kind folks to keep sending diapers and baby clothes I could never carry on."

Those were the words of Sistetr Philomena to Mrs. James O'Reilly of 2971 Bonnie Lane, in a recent letter from Inchon, Korea.

Sister Philomena, who maintains an orphanage there called "Star of the Sea" is the only white person in a province of one million Koreans.

HER ORPHANAGE cares for some 3800 Korean youngsters and includes 60 babes in arms and 45 toddlers.

"We are eve rin need of liapers and baby bottles," she said. "Diapers, liapers, diapers — it's a continued cry."

Teh orphanage's water main was broken. Consequently, she said, "we had a qualtity of buckets and tubs all over the yard to catch all the rain drops possible for washing.

"NOW THE WEATHER is getting cooler and a few crib blankets would mean a lot to me in my work."

Mrs. O'Reilly knows Sister Philomena through friends and her son-in-law, Major Daniel Rix, now serving in Korea.

Any donation sent to the war-ravaged youngsters would be helpful, sepecially with the coming of winter, and, as our servicemen can attest, winters in Korea become quite severe.

You can give these tots a break by sending your baby clothes to: Sister Philomena, Star of the Sea Orphanage, APO 971. c/o P. O., San Francisco.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I sincerely hope and pray that The Sun will follow up its fine campaign which helped clear up the garbage franchise debacle in the Sanitary District by taking the lead in another campaign against the contemplated rezoning of Contra Costa County to permit the subdivision of county lands into ¼-acre instead of ½-acre lots.

This is the type of thing always sponsored by a few land speculators and real estate dealers and which harms the thousands of persons who move into rural areas to get away from the jammed residential areas of cities.

A large majority of the residents of the county should be against it. It should be a hotter issue than the garbage franchise. The Sun should make new friends by opposing it.

Sincerely yours,
C. E. Hubach

RUTH HOWARD,

Three Named to Help Proposition 2 Drive

Three men from this area have been named to help with the drive of Proposition 2, the measure to provide increased state support for public schools, for the November elections.

They are Floyd Buchanan of Walnut Creek, Bruce Handley of Lafayette and Joseph Sheaff of Orinda.

Abbott Explains Proposition No. 3

An explanatory statement on Proposition No. 3 has been issued by C. L. Abbott, chairman of the Contra Costa County Citizens Committee for YES on No. 3.

"The issue revolving around Proposition No. 3 is one of unholding the California State Legislature in passing the Waters Bill which grants tax equality to non-profit private grammar and high schools," Abbott explained.

This measure amends the Welfare Code so as to grant tax exemption to these elementary schools on the same basis non-profit colleges have been granted such freedom since 1914, Abbott said.

Miller Addresses Oilworker Auxiliary

State Senator George Miller Jr., head of California's Democratic Party, was a guest speaker at a recent testimonial dinner given for Congressional candidate Robert L. Condon by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Oilworkers International Union in Martinez.

Spotlighting the Strip . . .

By KITTY COLE

OCTOBER IS NATIONAL RESTAURANT MONTH and the advertisers hope to revive the time-honored habit of "eating out, once a week." Because of the higher cost of living, and of course good old television (which gets blamed for everything) people have deserted the cafes and clubs, in favor of meals at home. However, if they would try our local spots, I'm sure they'd eat out at least once a week and probably even more. The tunnel strip eaterys offer such a variety of food, unusual atmospheres, and the check won't look like the national debt. Try your local restaurants during NATIONAL RESTAURANT MONTH.

Fabulous FAUST'S is now serving luncheon it it's beautiful dining room. So any day (Mondays excepted) from twelve to three, you can enjoy the delicious food in the quiet, cool atmosphere of this unusual place. FAUST'S has a cocktail bar, which looks out upon a lushly planted patio, through the sweep of ceiling to floor windows.

DANNY VAN ALLEN'S football tours are a huge success, and reservations are heavy for this week's game. This latest "gimmick" of DANNY'S, who's a very publicity-wise fellow, pays off financially, as well as furthering his good neighbor policy. . . . PEPE LANDEROS, who has long been ORINDA WILLOWS' popular band leader, plays from Monday through Saturday nights. But to give you dancing 7 nights a week, EVE and MILT NELSON have brought in the JIMMY DIAMOND TRIO on Sundays. JIMMY plays piano and celeste, and the group features Latin and Dixieland music. . . . LUSIANI'S still drawing capacity crowds, and easy to see why. Food, service, dance music all "tops" and the friendliness of the LUSIANIS and MORTARAS is gaining them much of the family trade. Specially-priced family dinners are served from 5 to 7:30 on week-days, and from 3 to 7:30 on Sunday. . . . "Meet you at CAPE COD HOUSE for lunch" is a common phrase among the local business men, who like this spot for its fine sea food, clever marine decor. Many a "deal" has been "set" over a delicious cambination seafood plate, a great favorite of the luncheoneers. (So I coined a word again.) 'Bye now.
